TO LIVE content with small means;
To seek elegance rather than luxury;
Refinement rather than fashion;
To be worthy, not simply respectable;

To study hard, think quietly,
Talk gently, act frankly;
To listen with open heart to birds and stars,
To babes and sages;
To bear all cheerfully; do all bravely;

Alabama Gamma Installed at Howard College, Birmingham, Alabama

BY W. MORGAN BAKER
Alabama Alpha

"A vaincre sans peril; On vaincre sans gloire."

WHEN William L. Phillips, Grand Secretary of Sigma Phi Epsilon, presented a charter on May 16, 1930, inscribed "Alabama Gamma" to a group formerly known as Sigma Delta Chi, local, down in the Deep South at Howard College, 44 hearts beat with the satisfaction that a glorious victory had been won.

The recipient body viewed its success as a proud achievement covering more than five years of strenuous endeavor.

As for Howard College, one of the oldest institutions of learning in the South, its romantic history runs parallel with the progress of education in Alabama. Although a denominational institution, it is not a seminary, nor a training school for ministers. It is a college of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

In 1830 the Baptists of Alabama began to turn their attention toward furnishing educational facilities for the Southern youth. In 1841 the State Baptist Convention chartered a school at Marion with a broader scope of training and named it in honor of John Howard, the English reformer. By the end of the third session the new school had $20,000 endowment, a large library and several thousand dollars worth of equipment. In 1860, with several new buildings and $260,000 endowment assured, the outbreak of the War Between the States depleted both students and faculty, leaving only such boys who were too young to follow their professors into battle.

The buildings were turned over to the Confederacy as a reclamation hospital for wounded soldiers. In 1865 the federal government used the buildings as a hospital, housing in them, over the protest of outraged Alabamians, a body of freed negroes who damaged the plant into a hulk. After the war, none of the endowment was recoverable nor were any claims against the government ever realized.

The hope of the college was a forlorn one indeed. Nothing remained but a group of demolished buildings. The people of the state were terribly impoverished; the reign of the detested carpetbagger had begun, and for fifteen years the population of Alabama was to undergo the trials of reconstruction. In spite of difficulties, the Baptists bravely set their faces forward and attempted to put Howard College upon a firm basis.

The most important step was its removal to Birmingham in 1887. From then on the enrollment increased by hundreds and faculty members were added yearly. Co-education in 1913 added many students. The faculty now numbers 70, and the student body as follows: Regular Session 1,200, Summer School 1,225, Extension Courses 250. About 400 girls attend the regular session.

Howard now has an endowment exceeding $1,000,000. A new building program has been inaugurated, the first step of which has been completed in the erection of a new girls' dormitory. A gymnasium costing $100,000 is nearing completion. The program embraces remodeling of old buildings and erection of new ones with an expenditure of $2,500,000 to be used by 1942 when the college will celebrate its centennial.

Howard is a member of and is accredited by the Association of American Universities, Southern Association of Colleges and five similar organizations.

Degrees granted at Howard include Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts in Education. The Howard technical department is closely affiliated with laboratories of leading industrial plants of the Birmingham district. Its science department especially has gained as one of the most completely equipped in the South.

Shortly after the founding of the local Sigma Delta Chi by T. O.

Smith, II, Jesse P. Lucas, Joel Spigener and Arthur S. Watters, work was begun on a new house on Fraternity Row. This structure was occupied in September, 1925. It is located on two lots overlooking Berry Field, one block from the campus. The house furnishes sleeping quarters for 25 men, a library, sun parlor and ample living room space for social functions. Alabama Gamma has a clear title to the property. The chapter has been operating under the Sigma Phi Epsilon plan of finance since autumn, 1927.

The installation date of Alabama Gamma was so late in the term that attendance from other active chapters was curtailed drastically because the schools were in the throes of final exams. However, James F. Coleman and Edward Foxhall, Georgia Alpha; Brothers Ennis and McGraw, Alabama Alpha, and Jean Paul LaCour, Alabama Beta, sacrificed time from the finals and came to help initiate the Howard chapter. Noble assistance was also rendered by the Birmingham Alumni Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon led by Luther Bewley, Tennessee Alpha, president.

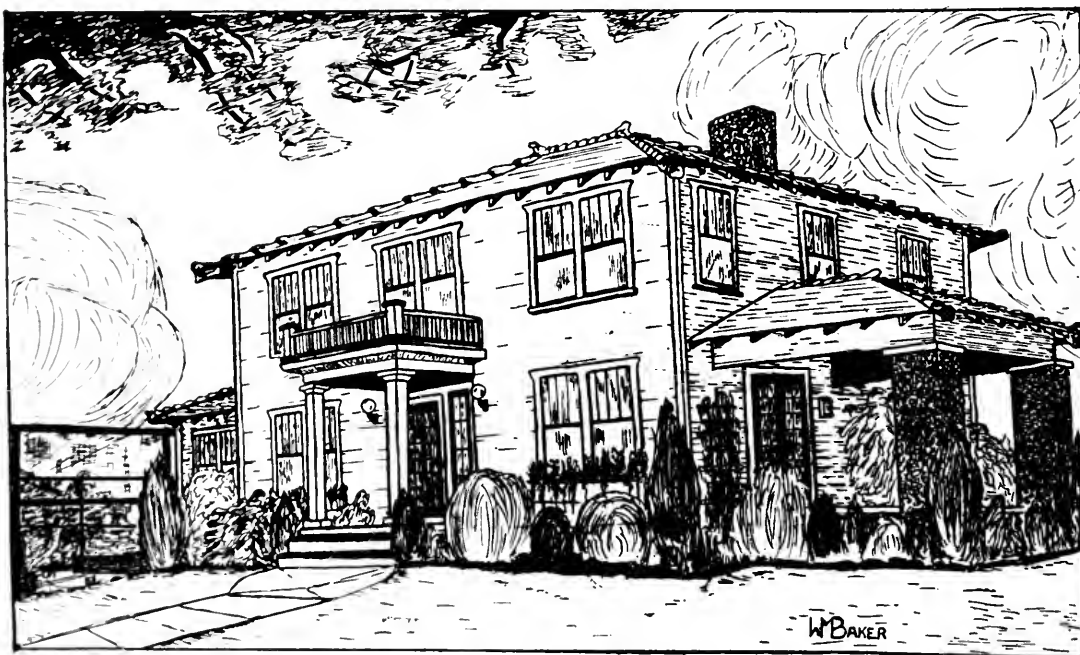

Grand Secretary Phillips arrived in Birmingham Wednesday, May 14. Following lunch with Judge Edgar Allen, Virginia Alpha, a meeting of the Alumni Chapter was held in the offices of James C. Lee, Alabama Alpha, at the Buffalo Rock Company. Then Mr. Phillips went out to the Howard chapter house and made preparations for the initiations which began that night.

The next day, Thursday, visitors were escorted about the campus where calls were made on faculty members—and the sororities. The Birmingham Alumni gave a luncheon on the Terrace Garden of the Thomas Jefferson hotel. In the afternoon, initiations were resumed at the college and were completed that night when the formal presentation of the charter took place. The lecture supplementing the previous rites was attentively received by the new members as was an exceptionally inspiring address by Mr. Phillips.

Friday morning was spent in the taking of snap shots about the house, sets of tennis, and miscellaneous entertainment. The Southern Conference track meet held at Legion Field attracted some of the visitors in the afternoon. Foxhall represented Georgia Tech on the team of hurdlers.

William L. Phillips, Dr. John C. Dawson, president of Howard College; Henry J. Porter, Jr., Virginia Theta, Porter Clothing Company of New Orleans, Jacksonville and Birmingham, and president of the Alumni Chapter, who returned from a business trip to New Orleans in time for the banquet; Luther Bewley, Tennessee Alpha, attorney, now in his second term as president of the Alumni Chapter; J. E. Oliver, Virginia Alpha, superintendent of the Birmingham Baptist Hospital and Gorgas Hotel; Paul G. Spinks, Alabama Gamma, Climaxing the three days of festivities were the banquet and dance at Cahaba Golf and Country Club in Shades Valley, several miles south of Birmingham. The entire club was chartered by the Howard group for the occasion. The banquet was held in the Parisian Cabaret with Ralph Russell, Virginia Eta, Birmingham realtor, presiding as toastmaster.

Others at the speakers' table were:

auditor, twice president of the Sigma Delta Chi Alumni Association; Ralph Dismukes, Alabama Gamma, executive office of the L. & N. R. R., former president of the Sigma Delta Chi Alumni; W. Morgan Baker, Alabama Gamma, Birmingham News editorial staff, former president of Sigma Delta Chi and chairman of the board of trustees of Alabama Gamma; Collins Urquhart, Alabama Beta, attorney, secretary of the Alumni Chapter, and Truman McGonigal, president of Alabama Gamma.

Dr. Dawson in his address of welcome to Sigma Phi Epsilon to the Howard campus, declared he was heartily in favor of fraternities, having always found them responsive to policies of the college and to all constructive programs. McGonigal gave an appreciative reply to a brief speech on the ideals of Sigma Phi Epsilon by Mr. Phillips. Spinks expressed gratitude for cooperation rendered by Southern Sig Ep chapters in Alabama Gamma's efforts for a charter. Bewley welcomed the new chapter to Birmingham. Baker introduced Mr. Porter, who outlined plans of Sig Eps in the Birmingham district in the direction of making Alabama Gamma one of the outstanding chapters of Sigma Phi Epsilon in the country.

"Virginia Theta exists no more; so, I have adopted Alabama Gamma as my chapter," Mr. Porter challenged.

Delegates from Georgia Alpha listened attentively to his speech and a visitor to the Tech house later reported it was being taken as a sort of constitution or tocsin for renewed activity among Atlanta Sig Ep alumni.

Fred Wiegand's orchestra played between the talks which were notable for their brevity. Cheering at intervals during the session was led by a group of Alabama Alpha boys including Don Cathcart and 'Buck' Ellis, former captain of the Auburn football team.

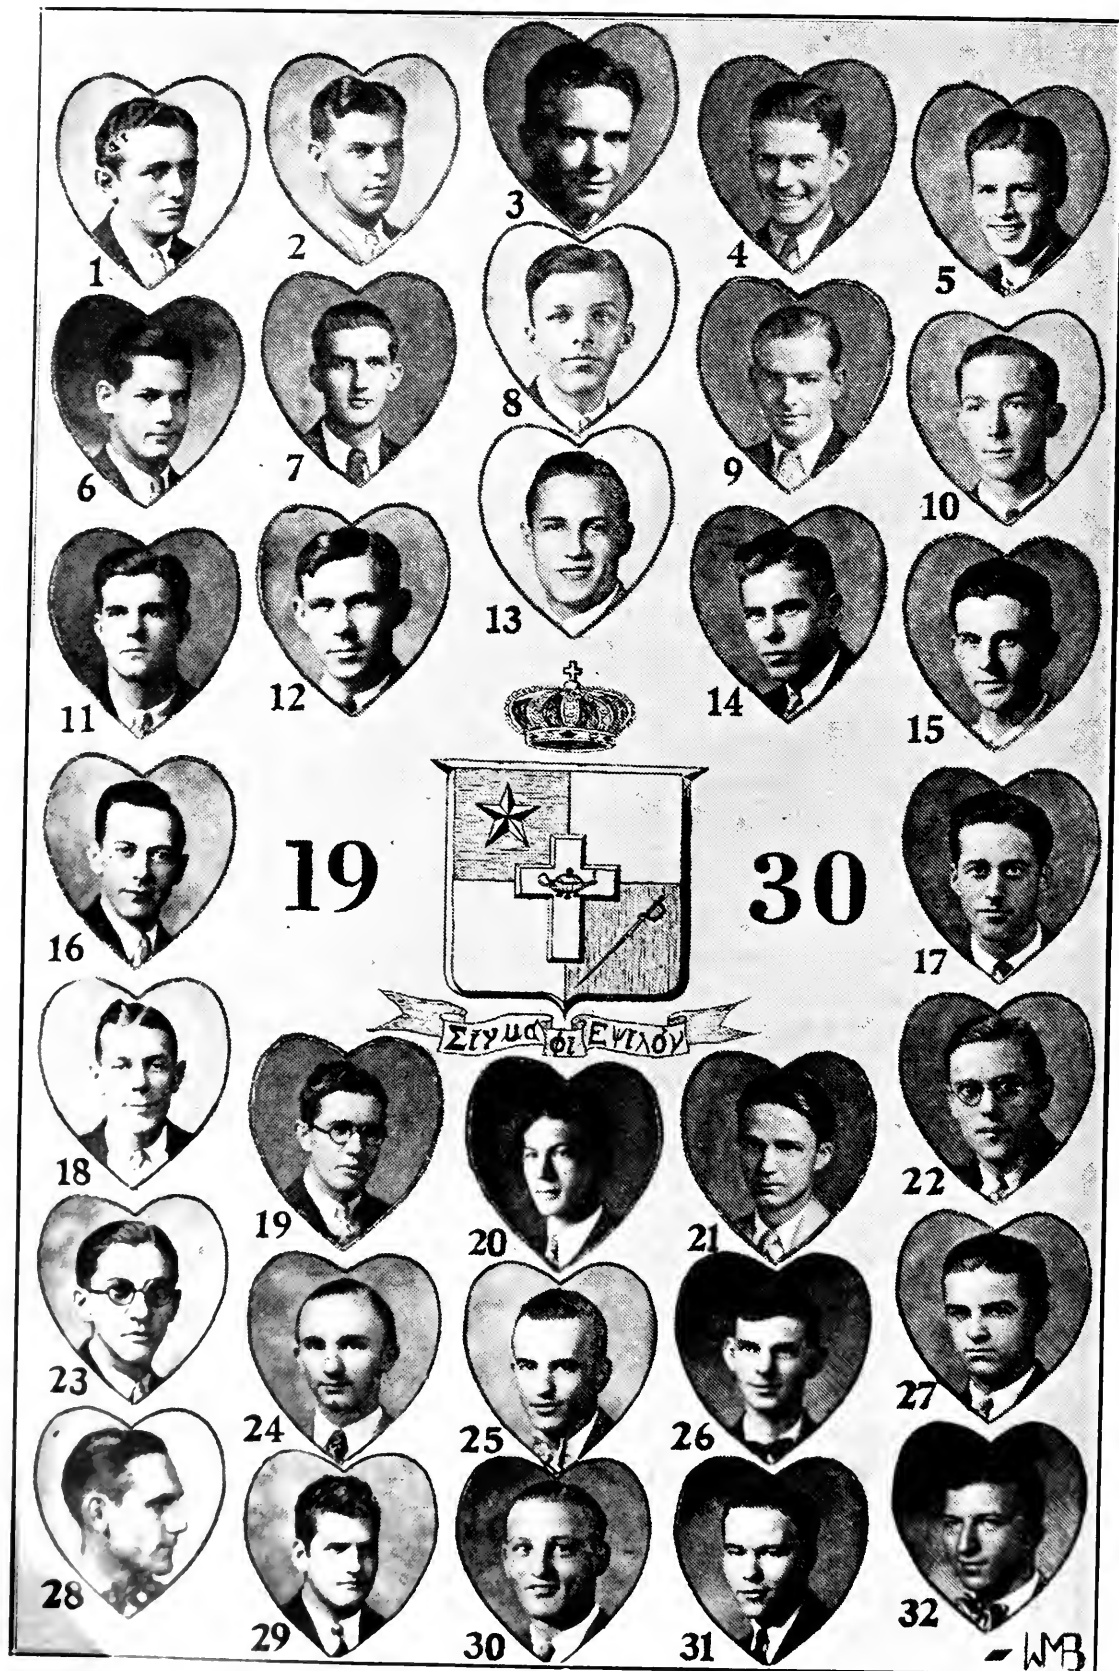

A ten-foot illuminated heart dominated one end of the ball room opposite the music stage where Rendleman's twelve-piece orchestra featured during the formal dance, playing leading college melodies. McGonigal led the grand march with Miss Susie Gullledge, Delta Zeta of Howard. Favors consisted of compacts of a futuristic design of the same pattern of the program and bids.

Attending the installation festivities were Hubert Drake, Wayne B. Nelson, James M. Oliver, Edward H. Wingate, James C. Lee, Charles H.

Levert G. Gravlee, who was twice president of Sigma Delta Chi and editor of the formal petition, was absent from the ceremonies because of his attendance in medical school at the University of Louisville. Hollis Garrard could not attend because he was in the University of Chicago. Joel Spiginer was pledged Sigma Phi Epsilon and initiated into Alabama Alpha upon his transfer to Alabama Polytechnic Institute in 1927.

WITH the installation of Texas Alpha, the Lone Star State became a part of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Activities began with the arrival of Grand Secretary Phillips on the morning of May 22nd. He was immediately taken to the chapter house for breakfast. As soon as the necessary arrangements had been made, the initiation ceremonies were begun and continued through the afternoon of being followed by the formal presentation of the charter to Texas Alpha of Sigma Phi Epsilon. Immediately after the presentation, the first meeting of Texas Alpha was called to order, the primary purpose of the meeting being the election of chapter officers. Those elected were Frederick Korth, Robert Kinzbach, David Rawlins, Chester Lee, Clarke Petet, and Rodman Cutler.

Final examinations were in progress at a majority of the schools in the Seventh district and consequently it was impossible for chapters at these schools to send delegates. The ritualistic work was given by Grand Secretary Phillips and Sigma Phi Epsilon Alumni from Dallas and Austin. The installation took place during "dead week" at Texas, naturally limiting the social activities. The first function was a stag party given in honor of the visiting members of Sigma Phi Epsilon and, as they will tell you, "a good time was had by all." The installation banquet was held Saturday night in the East Room of the Stephen F. Austin hotel. Warren J. Collins served as toastmaster and added much to the success of the banquet with his sparkling humor. The climax of the banquet was the address by Grand Secretary Phillips, one which will long be remembered by the charter members of Texas Alpha. A short talk was made by each visiting member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The alumni chapters of Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Eta Chi were joint hosts at a banquet given in Dallas May 21st in honor of Grand Secretary Phillips. The members of the two organizations attended the banquet in a body, which was a very enjoyable affair.

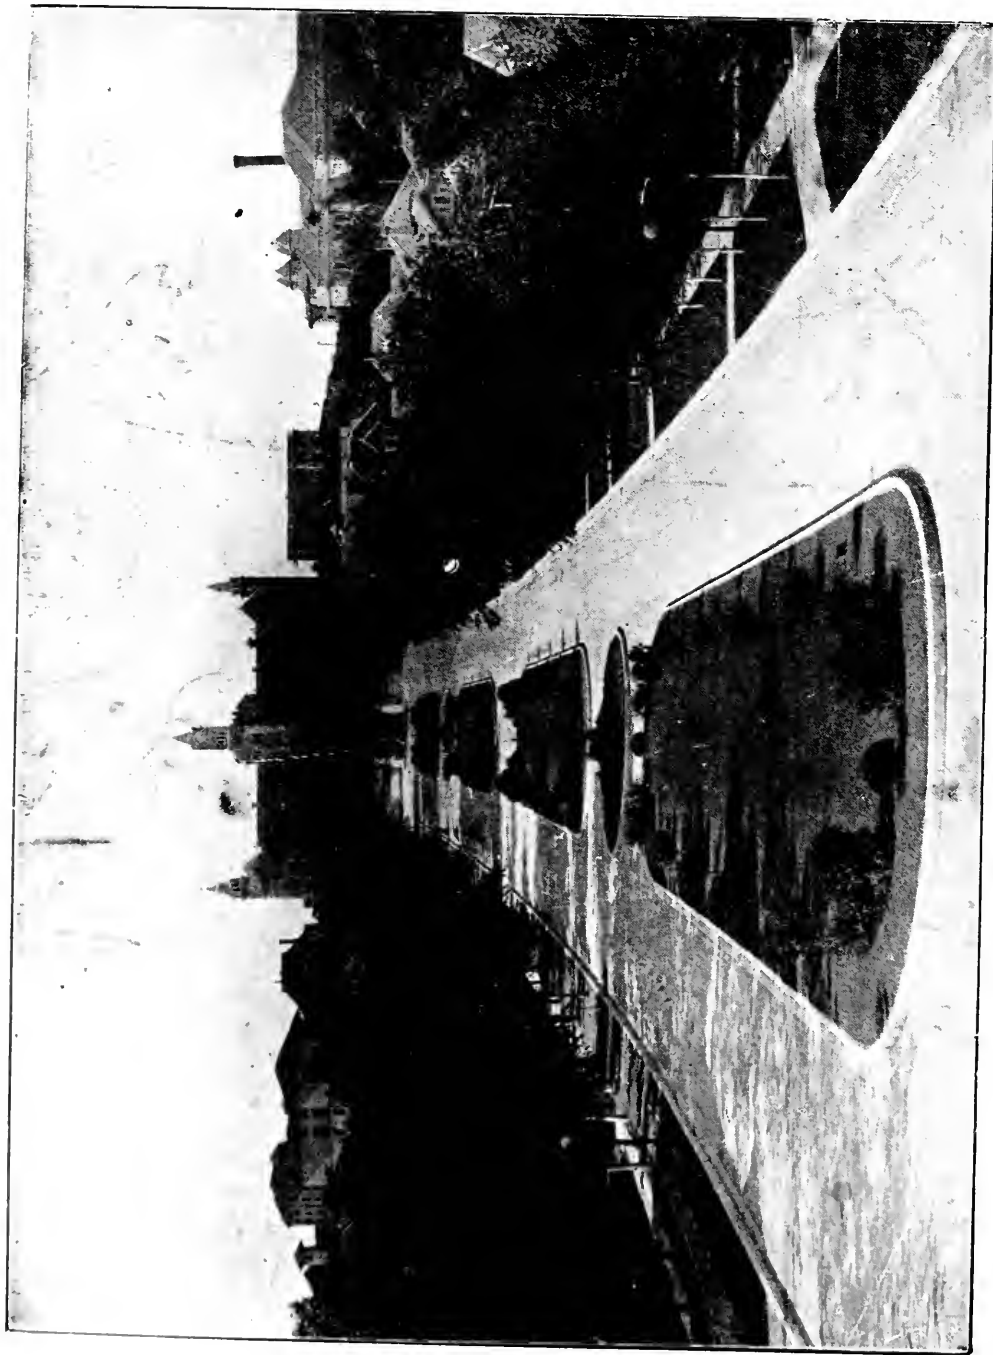

Sigma Eta Chi was founded in 1924 by eight ambitious men in response to a movement on the campus for more fraternities. At the end of the first year of the chapter's existence, there were thirty names on the chapter roll. The following year saw rapid strides taken by the local in making its presence and influence felt on the campus. Several of the high student offices were held by members of the group. Not only was the chapter strong politically, but it was strong scholastically as well. The membership of the local had increased to nearly fifty at the end of the fourth year, including many men of prominence on the campus. Drastic steps were taken against fraternities by the board of regents during the summer of 1929, but at the beginning of the school year Sigma Eta Chi was in a position to meet the new requirements and entered the year with the brightest outlook. The first negotiations with Sigma Phi Epsilon were started in the fall of 1928. Late in the school year of 1930 the chapters of the Seventh district and the executive committee endorsed the petition and the dream of the local came true.

The first direct steps toward the founding of the University of Texas were taken by the Congress of Texas in 1839, there being set apart a portion of land for a campus in the city of Austin. In 1879, one million acres of land were added to the original appropriation of 1839, and in 1883, another million acres were added. On September 15th, 1883, the University of Texas was formally opened in the present main building with an enrollment of approximately two hundred students. The original campus of forty acres has been added to from time to time until it now comprises one hundred and forty-four acres of land in the heart of Austin. In addition to the campus, the university owns over two million five hundred thousand acres of land in west Texas. This land is conservatively appraised by geologists and real estate experts at between fifty and one hundred million dollars. Little did the forefathers of Texas realize that the land which they were granting the university would prove such a boon to education. Early in 1925, oil was discovered on a portion of this land, and as a result, the permanent building fund of the university has been increased to $14,000,000. This fund is being added to at the rate of $2,500,000 per year.

The university is composed of the following schools and colleges: College of Arts and Sciences, Graduate School, School of Law, College of Engineering, School of Business Administration, School of Pharmacy, School of Journalism, School of Medicine and College of Nursing at Galveston, and School of Mines and Metallurgy at El Paso.

Theta Sigma Phi of New York University Becomes New York Gamma

By WILLIAM G. HEIDELBERGER
New York Gamma

THE transition from a field of limited area to one of national scope, with its attendant greater responsibilities and rewards, is ever a source of happiness and satisfaction. To advance from the inherently restricted activities of a local in fraternal affairs to the greater opportunities and more influential standing of a chapterhood in a progressive national fraternity should ever be the aim of the true

ance of Grand Secretary William L. Phillips, assisted by Brother Don Elliott, Traveling Secretary, and Brothers Frank H. Weiser, Simon S. Keeney, George T. Walne, Jr., Don McCollum, Winfield O. Perry and William Paisley, of the New York Alumni.

The degree teams worked steadily until midnight on Thursday, dinner-time Friday and noon on Saturday, at Greek. As this privilege is denied to many, so the more will it be cherished by those to whom it is granted.

Animated by these ideals, Theta Sigma Phi, local at New York University, petitioned Sigma Phi Epsilon for chapterhood. The pleasing result of this petition was the installation of the group as New York Gamma chapter on June 5, 6 and 7.

The ritual and installation rites were exemplified under the able guidance of Grand Secretary William L. Phillips, assisted by Brother Don Elliott, Traveling Secretary, and Brothers Frank H. Weiser, Simon S. Keeney, George T. Walne, Jr., Don McCollum, Winfield O. Perry and William Paisley, of the New York Alumni.

Brother Phillips gave the lecture on Saturday afternoon, after which Brother Frank H. Weiser, president of the New York Alumni, presented the chapter charter. Howard B. Parker, president, accepted the charter on behalf of the chapter.

The social functions were held in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Governor Clinton. Friday night was given over to a formal dance, the pleasure of which was greatly enhanced by contemplation of the significance of the occasion. Brother and Mrs. William L. Phillips and Professor and Mrs. Herbert M. Schiffer of New York University, were the guests of honor.

As in the days of old, men would cement their vows of friendship by breaking bread together, so on this happy occasion, new and old Sig Eps met at the banquet table in celebration of the new fellowship. The pleasant atmosphere engendered at this occasion of rejoicing will ever linger in the memories of the diners. Brother Phillips led our guests of honor, who included Dean G. Rowland Collins, Professors Herbert M. Schiffer and Lloyd E. Dewey, Brothers Don Elliott and Frank H. Weiser, and C. O. Moore who acted as toastmaster.

Theta Sigma Phi was founded in the early part of 1923 by twelve earnest men who were impelled to unite by the force of their common ideals. Faith, hope and courage were in the main their assets. Notwithstanding lack of material resources, they built slowly, but broadly and solidly.

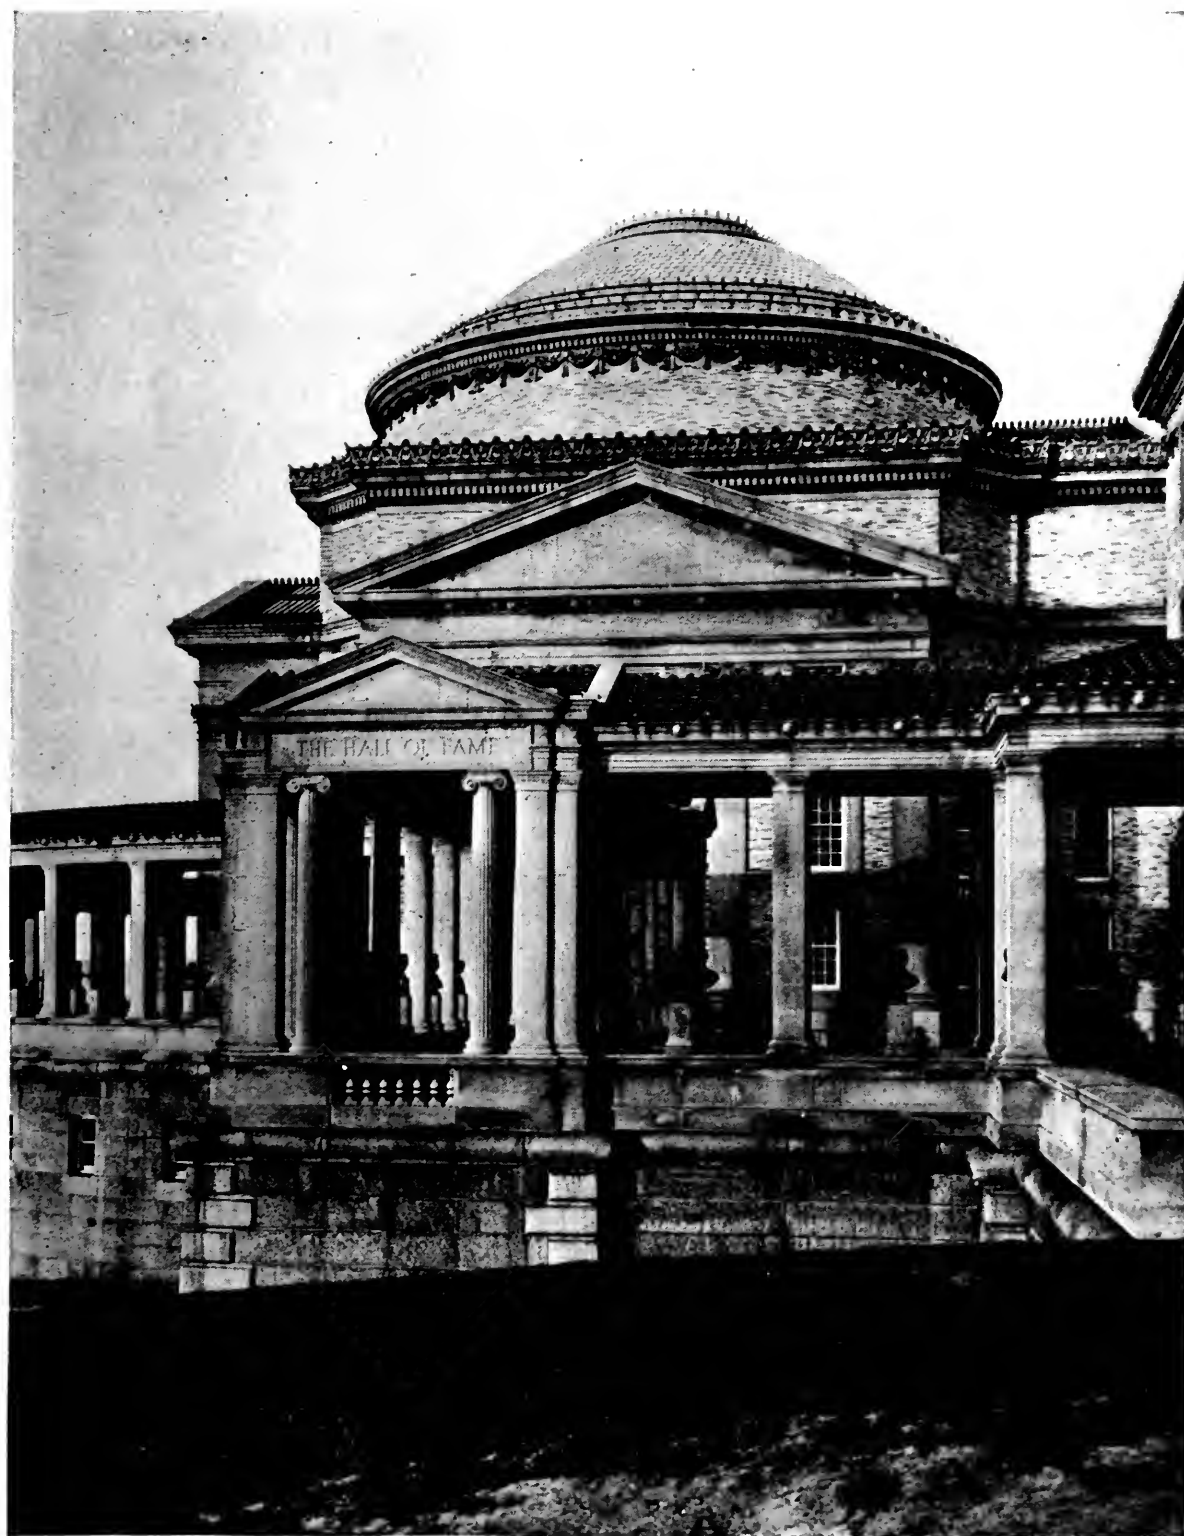

As is usual with new organizations, the way of the early years is hard. Still, persistence in following a clear course will win out, and so it was with Theta Sigma Phi. Each year saw an increase of good quality membership, with a commensurate growth in material resources and prestige on the campus.

Scholarship was never at any time subordinated to mere increase in numbers. Theta Sigma Phi was always in the forefront in group average and was never without representation in the honorary scholastic societies.

New York University owes its origin to the public-spirited activity, extended over many months in the early 1830's, of a group of prominent citizens who subscribed to its first endowment. They secured a charter for the new institution from the State Legislature, April 18, 1831. Their plans were of an unusually broad and liberal character and anticipated in surprising degree the wide and distinctive service now rendered by the institution which they founded. They planned for schools of law, medicine, engineering, graduate studies, departments of fine arts, philosophy of education and the training of teachers; all of these in addition to the time-honored curriculum in the liberal arts and humanities. An inevitable lack of funds at the start retarded the early development of the extraordinary program but in the course of years its principal features were brought to maturity. The institution was chartered under the name of the University of the City of New York. In 1896 the name was changed to New York University in order to obviate the prevalent confusion both with the College of the City of New York, a municipally supported institution, and with the University of the State of New York (the State Department of Education).

The University now consists of five main centers: Washington Square Center at which the School of Commerce, Washington Square College, School of Education, School of Law, and Graduate School are located; University Heights at which the College of Arts and Pure Science, the School of Engineering, the Guggenheim School of Aeronautics, the College of Fine Arts, and a branch of the Graduate School are located; Wall Street Center, at which the Graduate School of Business Administration, a branch of the School of Commerce, and the School of Retailing are located; the Medical Center at which the University and Bellevue Hospital Medical College are located; and the Dental Center at which the College of Dentistry is located. The total enrollment of these schools is approximately 32,500 students. There are approximately 1,500 members on the faculty roll. Fraternities also are well represented, there being 48 national, social and honorary societies. With the exception of the College at the University Heights, the university is co-educational.

Much of what you think is wasted time is a practical education in meeting with people. The Student Loan and Fellowship Fund Up to the Present Time

Ten Loans Totaling $2,200 Have Already Been Made—Numerous Applications Coming In

BY GRAND SECRETARY WILLIAM L. PHILLIPS

THE idea of a Sigma Phi Epsilon fund for student loans, which has been in the minds of many of our members for a number of years, was crystallized at the Seattle Conclave when brought before the delegates by Brother Charles L. Yancey. A summation of Brother Yancey's original proposal as it appears in the minutes of the Conclave is:

"Brother C. L. Yancey reported for the Student Loan and Fellowship Fund. This Committee's report, which included the starting of the fund with a $10,000.00 appropriation from the Endowment Fund and a diverting of the $7.50 from each of the $15.00 that goes to the Endowment Fund from initiation fees for the continuation of the Fund, was adopted by the Executive Committee. The Student Loan and Fellowship Fund Committee was instructed to prepare its papers for presentation to the chapters for ratification."

After the Conclave, Grand President Draper appointed a committee consisting of Brothers C. L. Yancey, P. G. Koontz, and A. P. Dippold to work out a plan of operation of a Student Loan Fund and this committee reported at a meeting of a subcommittee of the Executive Committee at St. Louis, April 7, 1929. After reviewing the work of this committee, which included a set of forms, the report was referred back for further development. The committee made its second report at a meeting of the Executive Committee in Richmond, Virginia, August 15-16, 1929. This report was accepted by the Executive Committee and submitted to the chapters for ratification in a letter of Brother Yancey which will long be a landmark in the history of the fraternity:

THE LETTER OF LOAN FUND COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN:

"I herewith enclose to you certain Resolutions which have been unanimously passed by the Executive Committee, and which appertain to the Student Loan and Fellowship Fund.

Grand President Draper appointed a Committee composed of Brothers Chas. L. Yancey, Paul G. Koontz and A. P. Dippold to work out a plan for a Student Loan Fund to be operated by the fraternity and for the use and benefit of its members. This Committee made a careful survey of Student Loan Fund plans in operation throughout various schools, and loan plans of various organizations. The plan submitted had the unanimous approval of the Special Committee and of the Executive Committee.

It is necessary that certain changes and additions to the Constitution be passed before the Student Loan and Fellowship Fund plan can be put into operation.

Enclosed are copies of the Resolutions that it is necessary for the chapters to pass in order that the Plan may be promptly put into effect, and in order that the members of the various chapters may get the benefit thereof during this school year. In addition to the changes which must be made in the Constitution I enclose the requirements for a Student Loan.

The interest charged will be 5% per annum and will be deducted from the principal of the loan. The loan must be guaranteed by the chapter, this on the theory that if the chapter itself does not repose sufficient confidence in the applicant, and is not sufficiently interested in him to guarantee the loan, then the Grand Chapter should not be asked to do so. We will also require the note to be endorsed by applicant's parents, or, in the event they are not alive or available, then by some one or more responsible parties in his home town. If there is a default, the Grand Chapter will make every effort to collect, first, from the man who received the money; next, from his parents or other endorsers; and last, from the chapter.

The Committee has worked out this Plan and in doing so feels that it is blazing the trail for a bigger and greater fraternity, and one which will be of more practicable use and benefit to its active members. It has been estimated that the interest charged will just about defray expenses of operation. There is, of course, no intention of handling it at a profit, the whole idea being to furnish needy boys a portion of the necessary expenses to get through college at a minimum rate of interest.

It may be necessary that changes be made in the procedure and forms from time to time, and if so, this can be done.

So far as I am advised, no National Fraternity has as yet adopted or put into operation a National Student Loan Fund. Various chapters have it in various forms, but we are leading the way as a National Fraternity in this direction and we want your whole-hearted support. It is our idea to make Sigma Phi Epsilon a medium of more practicable usefulness to its members. The Committee therefore solicits your prompt approval of these Resolutions, believing that by so doing you will aid in bringing about a bigger and better fraternity.

Fraternally yours,
CHAS. L. YANCEY."

The proposed amendments submitted to the chapters for ratification were:

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

To Section 3, Article 8 of the Laws of

THE SIGMA PHI EPSILON FRATERNITY

By adding to said article Section 3-d, to read as follows:

"One-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of all the monies hereafter received from the Fifteen Dollars (\$15.00) initiation fees provided for in this article, shall be placed by the Grand Treasurer in an account to be known as 'THE SIGMA PHI EPSILON STUDENT LOAN AND FELLOWSHIP FUND, for the purpose of making loans to worthy and deserving active members of this fraternity.

and by adding Section 3-e to said Article 8, as follows:

"The Trustees of the Endowment Fund are hereby authorized and directed to pay to the Grand Treasurer a sum of money equal to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for the purpose of forming a nucleus to start said Student Loan and Fellowship Fund."

and by adding Section 3-f to said Article 8, as follows:

"Monies may be transferred from 'THE SIGMA PHI EPSILON STUDENT LOAN AND FELLOWSHIP FUND' to the 'ENDOWMENT FUND' and from the 'ENDOWMENT FUND' to the 'SIGMA PHI EPSILON STUDENT LOAN AND FELLOWSHIP FUND', in order that the requirements of both said 'LOAN AND FELLOWSHIP FUND' and 'ENDOWMENT FUND' may be fulfilled as nearly as possible, but no such transfer of monies may be made except upon the written order of the Executive Committee of the fraternity."

and by adding Section 3-g to said Article 8, as follows:

"All loans and fellowships to student members shall be passed upon and approved by a majority of a committee of three, said committee to consist of the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer, and Grand President, provided, however, the Grand President may appoint some member of the Executive Committee to serve in his place and stead."

and by adding Section 3-h to said Article 8, as follows:

"The said loan committee shall make loans only in such amounts and to such members, and in accordance with such rules, regulations and requirements as may be approved by a majority of said loan committee, and after such rules, regulations and requirements have been approved by the Executive Committee."

The following "Suggestive Requirements For a Loan" were sent to the chapters at the same time as was the foregoing material:

SUGGESTIVE REQUIREMENTS FOR A LOAN

1. Applicant must be a member in good standing of THE SIGMA PHI EPSILON FRATERNITY and of the chapter which he desires to guarantee his loan.

2. Applicant must fill in and execute an application and also have the same executed by his parents, and/or other persons financially responsible.

3. Chapter must also personally execute the application as provided for therein.

4. No applications will be considered except those of Juniors and Seniors.

5. Applicants must have a good moral and scholastic standing.

6. Maximum loan in any one year, to any one student member, shall be limited to Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars, and a minimum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars.

7. Each and every note must provide that on the 1st day of the month next succeeding the date on which the loan is closed, a payment of not less than One ($1.00) Dollar be made on said loan, and not less than One ($1.00) Dollar on each succeeding month during the scholastic year, during which said loan is made, and that all loans be paid within twelve months after the student member's senior year, in equal monthly instalments covering the balance due after said senior year's work has been completed.

These suggested changes and additions to the laws of the fraternity necessary to the establishment and administration of a Student Loan and Fellowship Fund were accepted by the necessary number of chapters on November 15, 1929. The acceptance of this plan by the fraternity showed that of the eighty-four chapters (sixty-four active and twenty-four alumni) eighteen voted (seventeen active and one alumni)—failure to vote signified assent to the propositions. Of these seventeen which voted, eleven voted unreservedly for, and one voted conditionally for, and five voted against. An analysis of the vote shows that the principal objection to the plan was the feature of the policy suggested by the Executive Committee requiring the endorsement of the borrower's chapter. The analysis of the vote and the adjustment of certain minor details in the forms occasioned considerable correspondence between the members of the Executive Committee, consequently action was somewhat delayed and the forms were not received from the printer until late in January, 1930. The first loan was made on March 10, 1930. Since that date requests for information regarding loans have been coming in and forms have been sent to twenty-two members representing fifteen chapters in thirteen states. Ten loans totaling $2,200 have been made to members of the following chapters:

| Chapter | Date | Amount |
|-----------------|-------------------|----------|
| Missouri Alpha, | Mar. 10, 1930.... | $300.00 |
| Colorado Gamma, | Apr. 9, 1930.... | 200.00 |
| Colorado Gamma, | Apr. 15, 1930.. | 100.00 |
| Missouri Alpha, | Apr. 15, 1930.... | 300.00 |
| Iowa Alpha, | May 12, 1930..... | 300.00 |
| Iowa Alpha, | May 16, 1930..... | 100.00 |
| Montana Alpha, | May 21, 1930.... | 100.00 |
| Indiana Alpha, | June 5, 1930..... | 300.00 |
| Nebraska Alpha, | June 14, 1930.... | 300.00 |
| Missouri Alpha, | June 27, 1930.... | 200.00 |

In perfecting the plans of operation several questions of policy were discussed.

"Is the $10,000.00 appropriation from the Endowment Fund to be repaid to that fund?"

On February 7, 1930, the Student Loan and Fellowship Fund Board decided that it was not to be refunded.

On February 7, 1930, it was decided as the money on a loan would not be paid to the loanee until after all papers were signed and the investigation was completed that the applicant should not date the note. This date is to be placed on the note by the Board on and as of the date of the issuing of the check to the loanee.

On February 7, 1930, this question also arose:

"Are loan papers to go to Grand President or is the decision of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer sufficient?"

It was decided by the Board to send applications to the Grand President for tentative O. K. while the Grand Treasurer is getting reports on the applicant and co-makers.

The Grand President may pass his authority in this matter on to another member of the Executive Committee according to the plans presented to and adopted by the chapters.

It had been suggested by one Alumni Board Treasurer that checks might be sent direct to Chapter Comptrollers or other creditors.

On February 14, 1930, the Board decided this would not be a good policy and all checks are to be paid direct to the loanee—this to avoid possible legal entanglements.

On February 19, 1930, a discussion of a means of getting the rating on co-makers of notes resulted in the Board deciding to have a regular Credit Reporting Company make reports on such co-makers as it deemed advisable.

The amount of money now in the Student Loan and Fellowship Fund is $16,945.78. Of this amount $10,000 was transferred from the Endowment Fund for the purpose of starting the new fund and the difference between this and the total amount just stated, including the $22,000 which has already been dispersed in loans, was received from the $7.50 set aside for this purpose from each initiation fee received at the Central Office. The Student Loan and Fellowship Fund will grow in the same ratio as does the number of initiates and the number of persons among those initiated before August 1, 1924, who become Life Members. As the fund grows so will its usefulness, for it is not planned to limit Sigma Phi Epsilon's activities in this field strictly to the lending of money. It is planned to institute fellowships in the several institutions in which we have chapters to be awarded to the man or men in these chapters who shall meet the requirements to be set up by the Student Loan and Fellowship Board in conjunction with the Scholarship Committee at such time as the funds available make this action possible. Of course it is not even hoped to establish a fellowship in every institution in which we have a chapter at the very beginning. The growth in number of fellowships must of necessity be gradual, but the ultimate goal is a Sigma Phi Epsilon Fellowship in every institution where there is a chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

It is believed by those who have been actively associated with the inauguration of Sigma Phi Epsilon's Student Loan and Fellowship plan that this movement on the part of the fraternity is one ranking in importance with the adoption of the now famous and much-imitated Sigma Phi Epsilon Plan of Finance. As the plans have passed through the several formative stages the members of the committee have been impressed by the far-sightedness and breadth of vision of members of the Executive Committee who went before them in providing sufficient and stable funds to make this great contribution on the part of the fraternity possible. For to their vision is to be attributed the fact that Juniors and Seniors in Sigma Phi Epsilon who might otherwise suffer difficulty in doing so will now be able to complete their courses uninterrupted instead of dropping out for a few years or permanently. Sigma Phi Epsilon will in this wise play a still greater part in the destinies of many young men and will thus be adding still further to supplementing the activity and efforts of home and Alma Mater. She will thus be taking care of her own and by so doing will be making better alumni by making better actives.

Robert Y. Edwards Resigns Auditorship, to Head "Fraternity Management"

Many Fraternities Express Indebtedness to Him for Knowledge of Sigma Phi Epsilon Plan of Finance

SINCE September 10, 1923, the name of Robert Y. Edwards has been well nigh a synonym for Sigma Phi Epsilon, for from that date until September 1, 1926, he served the fraternity in the capacity of Traveling Secretary, having succeeded C. H. Freeark in that position, and from September 1, 1926, to September 1, 1930, he served as Auditor of the fraternity and House Manager at the Central Office. On the last named date his resignation was accepted to make possible his entrance into the business world which has long been beckoning to him. Bob's going is a matter of universal regret, for in the seven years in which he has been connected with the fraternity he has won a host of friends and made Sig Ep contacts which are, perhaps, surpassed in number only by the similar contacts of Grand Secretary Phillips who, along with Clifford Scott who served as Editor of the JOURNAL for ten years, is the only officer of the fraternity with a longer period of service to his credit than has Edwards.

Fitted by both training and aptitude it was but natural that he should make a success of his work with the fraternity. Residing in Chicago at the time of his graduation from high school he naturally entered the University of Illinois. When he had been there about a year and a half the war came and he left the university to go into other work. He went first to Hog Island where, along with three friends, he was placed in charge of the pay rolls of the force of from 6,000 to 10,000 men employed in that plant.

From Hog Island he went to the Hawthorne plant of the Western Electric Company, where he was raised from rook time-clerk to head of the time department within two months. He left this job to become credit man for the Aeolian Vocalian Company, a position which he held for a very short time because of his enlistment in the army. Upon being dismissed from the army he was offered his same position with the Aeolion Company but chose instead to accept a better opening with the Empire Mattress Company.

It was at this point that Edwards decided to return to college to take up work which would prepare him for entrance into the foreign service of the government. He attended George Washington University for the year 1919-20, taking law. It was in November of this year that he was initiated into District of Columbia Alpha of Sigma Phi Epsilon. The following year Bob transferred to the Georgetown Foreign Service School where he took the degree of Bachelor of Foreign Service. With prospects of entrance into the foreign service none too bright as a result of the post-war inertia he qualified for civil service work and entered the Treasury Division of Loans and Currency in Washington. From this department he was transferred or promoted to positions in the Claims Department and in the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. Such was the experience which Bob Edwards brought to the Traveling Secretaryship and later to the Auditorship of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

ROBERT Y. EDWARDS,
District of Columbia Alpha,

When Edwards came to Sigma Phi Epsilon the Plan of Finance had only just been adopted and was yet in the experimental stage. Under his supervision and largely as a result of his efforts the Plan of Finance has passed from the experimental stage and has come to be recognized by Sigma Phi Epsilon as the greatest boon to the fraternity thus far devised. The chapters have been placed on a sound financial basis, the Endowment Fund has grown to such proportions as to make possible the speedy housing of our chapters in suitable homes and the lending of financial assistance to such of our membership as may need it in order to complete their academic or professional careers, and a National Headquarters worthy of the fraternity has been purchased. As a result of the descriptions of the Plan of Finance which have appeared in the JOURNAL and been reprinted by the magazines of other organizations, and of the addresses concerning and explanations of it made before the Interfraternity Conference by Grand Secretary Phillips and Brother Edwards, the Plan of Finance has come to be recognized as Sigma Phi Epsilon's greatest contribution to the fraternity world. Theta Chi, Sigma Pi, Pi Phi Pi, and Phi Mu Delta have adopted the Sigma Phi Epsilon Plan of Finance in toto. Writing in the Emerald for July, 1929, C. E. Palmer, former Grand President of Sigma Pi, says: "For ten years I have been hunting for a system of chapter finance accounting that would be elastic and simple enough to serve the needs of our various chapters. When I learned about the Sigma Phi Epsilon Plan, and had three conferences with their auditor, Mr. Robert Y. Edwards, I was convinced that they had a plan which is the most workable and the most logical thing that can be devised for this purpose, and through the courtesy of Sigma Phi Epsilon our plan will be based entirely upon their plan of finance." A similar expression of opinion is voiced by Walter R. Faries in the Rattle of Theta Chi for November, 1925, in an article which begins: "The proper administration of the finances of the active chapter is an ever recurrent problem for all national fraternities. Sigma Phi Epsilon has made the most progress toward a workable solution." The article continues by explaining how Kappa chapter of Theta Chi adopted the Sigma Phi Epsilon Plan of Finance to its betterment, a move which was shortly followed by the fraternity as a national organization.

It is not to be presumed that the four fraternities just named were the only ones to have been benefitted by the use of Sigma Phi Epsilon's Plan of Finance. For the past seven years Brother Edwards' desk has been a veritable clearing house for fraternity financial matters and his files show that somewhere in the vicinity of forty national fraternities, additional to those just named, and any number of local fraternities, have adopted phases of our Plan of Finance for the advice concerning which and the installation of which they have expressed their appreciation to Brother Edwards.

With such a background of experience it would seem but natural that Edwards should continue in the fraternity field. Indeed it is gratifying to his host of Sig Ep friends that such is the case for it will serve as a guarantee against any cooling of his Sig Ep ardor. He has organized Fraternity Management, a personal management service for fraternities, of which he is the head. The offices of this organization are at State College, Pennsylvania. In answer to the question: "Just what is the nature of your service?" Brother Edwards replied by saying: "Our whole procedure will be built around the belief that 'Proper financial administration requires two concurrent things: a system and a vitalizing force.' Fraternity Management will provide both the 'system' and the 'vitalizing force' by:

1. Supervision of the incorporation of the Alumni, if necessary.
2. Preparation of the annual budget for entire needs of chapter and house corporation.
3. Determine the basic number of men to support the budget.
4. Calculate the sliding scale of monthly assessments to assure a regular, constant and fixed income per month.
5. Provide a bookkeeping system if the one now in use is not satisfactory.

6. Train chapter officers to handle the records and detail of the system in use.
7. Have the chapter and alumni treasurers bonded.
8. Give personal and prompt attention to all problems of management and finance.
9. Designate the monthly house bill through the use of the sliding scale of monthly assessments to assure a constant income.
10. Render a Monthly Financial and General Report to the Alumni Board, based in part on information gathered from:
 - A. Balancing books.
 - B. Reconciling cash with bank statements, receipt book and ledger control of cash.
 - C. See that all assessments have been paid or satisfactory arrangements have been made in case of mitigating circumstances.
 - D. See that all merchandise delivered is checked against the invoice.
 - F. Give full consideration to all bills not promptly paid and discounts taken and outline the proper procedure for their immediate retirement.
 - F. Disclose any deviations from sound business practice before they become serious.
11. Render operating and financial statements at the close of the year for both the active chapter and house corporations.
12. Supervise and advise relative to the maintenance and upkeep of the physical property and equipment."

"Enlighten the people generally, and tyranny and oppression of body and mind will vanish like evil spirits at the dawn of day."

The Six Sig Ep Sanfords

Careers of Three Generations of Famous Family Marked by Rare Combination of Scholastic Ability and Athletic Prowess

BY JOSEPH R. ROBINSON
Virginia Alpha

IN 1932 the University of Richmond will celebrate its centennial birthday. In that same year the famous Sanford family will be able to mark fifty-nine years of association with the institution, and should nothing prevent, there will be at least one more member of that group gracing the roster of students.

In 1929 the two famous brothers, Nevitt and Taylor, graduated, leaving us, for a short time, without a Sanford of that line either on the rolls of Virginia Alpha or of the university.

Marked by the rare combination of scholarly ability and athletic prowess the past two generations of the Sanfords have attracted public attention for more than a quarter of a century, and the third generation back, represented by Grandfather Rev. M. F. Sanford, has been particularly distinctive in the support of all university affairs down to the present time. At almost any athletic contest spectators may notice an aged but very spry gentleman either in the stands or sometimes seated by the side of the coach, and there will not be a "Rat" in school who will more vociferously cheer for the Red and Blue. He is just as enthusiastic, if not more so, as he was in the days back in 1873-4 when he was a student here.

In the natural course of events, in 1897, there entered at old Richmond College, a youth who was to gather some distinction for himself before he left school, and who was destined to become "father to a line of kings"

—his three sons have really been kings in the realm of athletics, one of them has gained distinction in scholarship, and there are still two more prospects. This younger Sanford was one of the bulwarks in football and baseball on the Red and Blue teams of the late '90's and early 1900's. A lineman in football, he was co-captain in that branch—co-captain because his teammates were unable to break a deadlock between him and another member. Every time a ballot was taken the result was the same, a tie. Upon his graduation, Rev. T. Ryland Sanford began his life work in the ministry, serving in various fields in Virginia, and about fifteen or more years ago receiving a call at Chatham, which he accepted. During his pastorate in that town he served as President of Hargrave Military Academy, a preparatory school for boys. Here Ryland, Taylor and Nevitt received the bulk of their grammar and high school work, and here it was that the athletic ability, inherited from Dad, was developed, each of them excelling in at least three sports and participating in all. From Chatham Dr. Ryland Sanford moved to South Boston, thence to Fredericksburg, where he is to be found at the present time, pastor of the First Baptist Church there, in a community rich in the nation's history. A few years ago the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him; in the 1929 fall elections of Omicron Delta Kappa he was one of the three alumni chosen.

Like his father, he is a most loyal supporter of the university, a staunch rooter for all the teams, and faithful alumnus of Virginia Alpha. He is a trustee of the University of Richmond.

From 1903 until 1923, Sanford history was only in the making, so far as Richmond was concerned, but in the fall of 1923, Ryland, the eldest son, entered college after an extended period of training and seasoning at Hargrave Military Academy. While he was not a slouch in his class work, it was on the athletic field that he attained the distinction which makes his name live to the present day. Particularly gifted in football, and playing the game from pure love of it, it was natural that he should have been elected to the captaincy in his senior year, 1926. It was in this year that the three brothers played on the same team. The records are vague, but there is some intimation that he was selected at the end of that season for a berth on the All-State eleven.

Then along came the next two brothers. Taylor, familiarly known to Virginia Alpha as "Strib" (a name he acquired from Ryland because of his resemblance to the pictures of Young Stribling, remained at Chatham an extra year to wait for Nevitt, because Nevitt was too young to enter college. Following in the footsteps of Ryland, they had held honor positions at Hargrave, and when they entered college, it was just a continuation of the same thing. Football first occupied their notice; Taylor made the varsity in his freshman year (before our conference rules made it illegal), and Nevitt was good enough to play in one or two games—just enough to make him ineligible for another year of football this year. Taylor played four years, serving as captain of the 1928 eleven until injuries forced him to turn over the field generalship to Nevitt. It makes no difference as to what sport we are writing about for the years 1923-28, there is Sanford all over everything. In 1928, both Nevitt and Taylor were selected for the First Conference team, and were tied for the captaincy of the mythical eleven. The day before announcement was made of that fact, Taylor was chosen All-State tackle and Nevitt was a second choice for All-State half. Later in the session, Coach Frank M. Dobson had what appears to have been the happiest and at the same time the saddest day of his life. In presenting certificates to the graduating athletes, saving Taylor Sanford for last, he made the astounding announcement that Strib had won thirteen letters out of a possible sixteen, and was the only four letter man in the history of the institution. He did state, however, that the only reason Dr. T. R. Sanford was not a four letter man was that there were only three branches of sports in his day.

In the realm of scholarship Nevitt carried away the laurels. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, he was one of those mentioned for the Rhodes scholarship. Failing to receive this, he is at present pursuing graduate work at Columbia. Both Ryland, Jr., and Taylor are promising educators. Taylor's educational work, however, is only incidental. He is athletic coach at Hargrave Military Academy, the place of his early training. Incidentally, the next younger boy, Phil, is at present a student there. He looks like Nevitt, talks like Nevitt, but he plays football and basketball like Strib.

Just one more Sanford, Uncle R. Paul Sanford, played football at Richmond in 1915, and the following year went to Washington and Lee University, where during his stay he achieved quite as much distinction as did his brother and his nephews.

Here is a mark to shoot at. What chapter can produce as many Sig Eps in a family as Virginia Alpha? We are told that we are the only one that can show a father and three sons—and the possibility of more yet. Surely we cannot be challenged on the statement that no family can show more distinction on the campus of its Alma Mater than can the Sanfords of Virginia Alpha.

Give a man plenty of responsibility and he will soon show his true worth to himself and his business."—McEldowney.

A Sig Ep Birdman—Lieutenant T. L. Boyd, D. of C. Alpha

"He May Be Down, But He Is Never Out"

BY ARTHUR A. KIMBALL
District of Columbia Alpha

WE have read of the great attainments of brothers in Sigma Phi Epsilon in many fields of endeavor. The fraternity has been well represented among the statesmen, educators, doctors, and other prominent men of our country, but the District of Columbia Alpha chapter wishes to present for the recognition of the brothers the country over the achievements of one of our brothers in another field, aviation. This brother is Lieutenant Tallmadge Leslie Boyd, Aviation Corps, United States Army, better known to his brothers as "Tom."

Tom was born May 31, 1907, the son of an officer in the United States army. He lived the life of an army child, traveling from one post to another, attending a military preparatory school, but decided on a civilian's career, and the fall of 1926 found him in Washington, D. C., registered in the George Washington University and pledged to Sigma Phi Epsilon. It did not take the brothers long to find out that Tom was not content to lead a quiet life. He liked nothing better than to do something dangerous. He was an expert acrobat and his tumbling" stunts provided a thrill at many a smoker. But it was not until later that he had a chance to prove himself in a real emergency.

In March, 1927, Tom was initiated into the fraternity after a pledge period in which he had provided plenty of good sport for the brothers, but he had also worked his way into the hearts of his brothers, and no man was ever more popular, and to be a friend of Tom's was to know that you had a true friend if you ever needed one. Shortly after Tom came into the active chapter, he obtained a job at the Hoover field, a commercial aviation field, where an aviation school was also conducted. His job consisted of doing anything that was required of him. He delivered circulars, ran errands, went up with nervous passengers to comfort them, and did anything else that was asked of him. A powerful motorcycle was provided for his errands, and the men at the field would line up on the fence to watch the daring stunts he would perform on that motorcycle. It seemed a miracle that he should come through unscathed, but Tom's luck always seemed to stay with him. On one occasion the motorcycle was carrying Tom at sixty miles an hour over a dirt road, when, looking down, he saw that the brake rod was dragging, and at any minute might stick into the ground turning the motorcycle into a wheel. But this didn't faze Tom; he let the machine coast awhile to lesson the speed, and then he rolled off, unhurt.

LIEUT. T. L. BOYD

It was at this point that something happened at the field that brought Tom into the spotlight and gave him his first chance. One afternoon he was watching one of the planes overhead when he noticed that a wheel was missing and it was evident that the pilot and none of the ground men were aware of the fact. Tom immediately gave the alarm and wheels were held up to notify the pilot of his peril. The pilot then made a perfect landing on one wheel, injuring no one and scarcely damaging the plane. Certain of the pilots now took an increasing interest in Tom and offered to teach him to fly. The result was that Tom would go down to the field every morning at daybreak for a lesson and in a short time made his first solo flight. Tom had many trying experiences, but probably the most harrowing occurred when his best friend at the field crashed and was burned to death before his eyes. But even this did not daunt him and he continued his early morning flights until he was sufficiently experienced to be allowed to fly at any time.

Shortly after he had received these privileges he told the boys that he would do some stunts for them over the chapter house, and with this admiring audience he took his plane up over the city and began stunting.

While at a height of several thousand feet, Tom suddenly found himself in a tailspin. Now in all his flying Tom had never been in a tailspin before and no one had ever told him what to do in case he got into one. He tried every means he knew to right the plane, but to no avail. The earth was coming closer and closer and yet the steering apparatus would not control the plane because he could get no resistance under the tail. At last, when it seemed to the watching brothers that he would surely crash, Tom did the only thing that he could think was left to do,—he pushed down the gas. And this was the only thing that could have saved him. With the plane now rushing at the earth he began to feel his controls take effect, and at the last minute he righted his plane and flew back to the field. After Tom landed, one of the experienced pilots who had been watching his trying experience said to him, "Young man, if you did that on purpose you are one of the finest pilots I ever saw, but if not, you are the luckiest man who ever flew a plane."

At the beginning of Boyd's third year at George Washington University, he decided that after all he was cut out for a military career. He obtained an appointment as a flying cadet at Kelly Field in Texas. Only a small percentage of the men who apply for this training are successful, but Tom kept on, finished the course and was sent to the advance flying school at Brooks Field, Texas. Here he again was successful, and in February, 1930, he was commissioned a second lieutenant. He chose the bombardment branch and was sent to Hawaii for a year's duty flying heavy bombers.

On May 14th, 1930, eighteen bombers took off from Luke Field on the Island of Maui for Hilo on the Island of Hawaii, convoyed by navy seaplanes. Lieutenant Boyd was in command of and pilot for one of these bombers, with a crew of three enlisted men. Suddenly something happened and the heavy plane started crashing towards the shark-infested waters. Two of the crew leaped in parachutes, but the third found himof the crew. The bomber hit the water with great force and disappeared beneath, leaving only a spot of oil. The seaplane drifted helplessly in the rough water for about forty miles, unable to rise from the surface, and was later rescued by a navy tender.

Brother Boyd's own account of the tragedy as reported by the Honolulu press is:

"We were buzzing along smoothly

self and parachute tangled in the fuselage. Without a thought of the danger to himself, Tom remained in the plane and attempted to free his companion. He slipped and fell into the stabilizer and his boots were torn off and his legs lacerated, but still he struggled in his futile effort to free the entangled man. At the last moment, when he could see that his efforts were useless, Tom leaped in a parachute and was picked up by a seaplane with the two other members at the time as the last plane in a formation of four. The other three made a triangle ahead of us.

"I noticed the right wing beginning to settle and turned to bring it up. The wheel refused to turn although I tugged with all my strength, shouting to Alexander.

"Alexander was sitting on my right in the pilot's cockpit. As soon as he saw what was wrong he threw up his hands to show me it was hopeless. So I cut the gun and we shouted to get Cowan and Becker to abandon ship.

"Alexander went over the left side and along the fuselage. I stood up hanging onto the wheel and shouting to Cowan several times. He was slow to realize what was happening but when he did begin to climb back he was perfectly cool.

"Then I turned back, going over the right side onto the lower wing. Alexander was on the right wing shouting and pleading with Becker to jump. I began to shout and swear at him, but he stayed in his cockpit. * * *

"Alexander let go and shot away from the plane, as he was on the inside of the curve, the best place to leave the ship. I was on the outside.

"I knew I was supposed to be the last off and we were plunging down toward the sea. We had dropped about 3500 feet by this time and as I went out of the cockpit the air speed indicator was already 175 miles an hour.

"I decided I would grab Becker by the collar and pull him out. As I made a move toward him the wind shot me into the tail. I crashed hard against the controls and the rudder came off with me. But I didn't feel much pain. I was mad more than anything else.

"The plane turned over once in a half roll and then went down vertically.

"I was falling head first and the plane was directly ahead of me. I saw the white shreds of a parachute flapping in the tail and I felt sick because I had left the ship ahead of Becker.

"I pulled the rip cord as I saw the plane hit the water. My 'chute opened the same instant that I heard the noise.

"I was swinging hard when I hit the water. I slapped up against the side of a wave and it knocked me out.

"When I came to I was being dragged through the water by my parachute, which was still in the air.

"On the way down I realized it was going to be a big job getting untangled in the water but I couldn't do much about it.

"My shoes and socks were torn off when I struck the rudder. My helmet and goggles disappeared also and the buttons were gone off my kapok coat. It was hanging on by the arm pits.

"As soon as I hit the water I began to struggle with the parachute. It took me 10 or 15 minutes to get out of it.

"I think I hit the water first because I dropped farther than the others. Alexander went farthest down wind and Cowan was behind me.

"I saw Lieutenant Jones land and try to get Alexander, but he was pulled off their wing when the wind got into his parachute. Then I went by the other wing. I was in the water a half-hour or more before I was picked up."

A more personal account of the accident which tells more explicitly of the rescue and in which he pays tribute to the heroism of his navy rescuers is found in Brother Boyd's letter to Arthur M. Davis acknowledging a telegram of congratulations and good wishes from District of Columbia Alpha in which he says:

"It would have been a wonderful experience but for the fact that Becker got panicky and pulled the cord while he was standing in the cockpit. His 'chute tangled in the broken rudder (which broke when I went through it) and so he didn't have a chance and went with the plane.

"There was a thirty-five mile wind blowing and waves averaging over twenty feet high where he went down. I was slapped into one of the waves and knocked out for a few seconds, coming to as I was being dragged by my 'chute lickity hell. 'Chutes stay open and above water usually if there is any kind of wind at all. I had swallowed gallons of water and was too weak to "spill" my 'chute and after many efforts tried just once more to scrape it off with my toes. I succeeded finally. I was never so close to death before in my life as I was to drowning at that minute. And the funny part of it was that I was so weak that I didn't particularly care.

"The planes were circling around above us but were unable to locate us. After forty-five minutes we were located and towed aboard the navy P-D boat. (Don't ever let anyone curse the navy). After hours and hours of watching the seas just slowly disintegrate the boat, and after the order to abandon the ship had been given, we were picked up by a tramp vessel. (The P-D boat is a large Douglas seaplane with two Cyclone motors and costing around a hundred thousand dollars).

"When we went down the other ships had radioed the crash and reported that only I had been killed.

Because of this I was quite heartily welcomed upon my return.

"I was ordered to the hospital but high pressured my way out of it and reported for duty the day we got back.

"The pilots of the three boats that went down for us are to be recommended for the Flying Cross. Never let anyone tell you that they don't deserve it and a lot more."

The first reports of the accident did not disclose Boyd's rescue and the brothers were very anxious for his safety, but all know that whatever had happened, Tom would be sure to acquit himself bravely. The next morning the reports of Tom's rescue and his bravery were received, to the great relief of all. There is a possibility that he may be granted a leave of absence next year to come back and finish his work at George Washington. Should such be his good fortune, and ours, he may be assured of a most cordial welcome.

In the meantime District of Columbia Alpha chapter recommends the name of Tallmadge Leslie Boyd for a place in the Sigma Phi Epsilon Hall of Fame, in recognition of his distinguished service to his country, his fraternity, and his fellow man.

YOUTH

It should be borne in mind that in old age it is too late to mend, that then you must inhabit what you have built. Old age has the foundation of its joy or its sorrow laid in youth. You are building at twenty. Are you building for seventy? Nay, every stone laid in the foundation takes hold of every stone in the wall up to the very eaves of the building; and every deed, right or wrong, that transpires in youth reaches forward and has a relation to all the afterpart of man's life.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Sailfishing in the Gulf Stream

By WILLIAM M. FRANCIS
Delaware Alpha

Brother Francis is a prominent Wilmington, Del., sportsman well qualified to describe this Sport of Presidents. Last year he hooked forty-three sailfish; this year, twelve. He has won six prizes for his catches. The best period for sailfishing is January 15 to March 10.

ONE of the greatest thrills of angling experienced by sportsmen who have chanced to wander to the sunny climes along the southeast coast of Florida, is to hook a sailfish and take him from the blue waters of the Gulf Stream. If you have never had this experience you have missed the greatest thrill of your life. Oh, for the delicate but definite strike of the sailfish!

To even the most experienced fisherman the sailfish is considered one of the most difficult of the finny tribe to catch. This is what makes sailfishing a rare sport.

In studying the habits of the sailfish the old natives tell you that the small flying fish and ballyhoo are his favorite dish. When Mr. Sailfish spies a school of these tiny creatures he lunges in with his rasp-like bill and gives as many of them as possible his death tap, as it is called. He then swims around each one in its crippled condition while the survivors speedily seek refuge elsewhere.

Great care should be used in cutting the bait, which is made to resemble these small fish. The length of and the placing of this cut bait upon the hook is also an important trick. It has taken me several weeks, with the guidance of a native fisherman, to find out the most effective shape to cut the bait. The long slender strips used for bait should be of a tough nature, as from the amberjack, the bonita or most preferably the glittering bellies of the kingfish or albacore. The shining white color of the bait is an advantage for visibility from a great distance. I have found that baits of softer meat are apt to be torn from the hook when the sailfish strikes, thus losing one of the chances of making a successful catch. The bait should be so cut that it resembles a small fish swimming slowly just below the surface. During times when seaweed is floating a light sinker is used to avoid hooking the seaweed and destroying further chances of losing the strike. Due to the clear waters of the Gulf Stream it is not unusual to be able to see clearly from the stern of the boat the bait as it trails approximately 175 feet astern. There are times when you may even see the flash of the approaching fish before the strike is felt. When you feel a slight tap or tug at the hook the line should be let out freely for about 25 feet and you should make sure not to strike until Mr. Sailfish has swallowed the bait. I have had sailfish strike the bait and then hesitate, never returning again. Probably the bait was not deceptive enough or maybe he just did not feel like swallowing it. In this case you may often have to use skill in coaxing him to swallow it by jerking the line slightly, so that the bait jumps like a crippled fish.

A fisherman must have skill in order to land his fish even after it is hooked and unless he plays him correctly he will be unfortunate in probably not hooking one out of twenty.

GRAND GUARD WILLIAM M. FRANCIS
With Two of His Finny Trophies Snared in Florida Waters.

The sense of feeling regarding the tap of the sailfish should be very acute. Oh, the feeling that Mr. Sportsman has when the tap has been made and the line run out for a strike! You are trembling with excitement. Immediately the sailfish has been hooked it is due time for him to use his wits in order to release himself. I have experienced on several catches that the first action is a leap in the air, breaking the surface of the water; the lashing of his tail into the line and finally going back into the sea with further various efforts to rid himself of the hook. On a bright, sunny day the leap of the sailfish from the sea into the air resembles a molten mass of silver. Upon the return of the sailfish, after making this leap, he immediately starts on what we term his run, taking yard after yard of your line from the reel in resistance to the friction drag on the reel adjusted at a certain pull. It is nothing unusual to have Mr. Sailfish take from 200 to 250 yards of your line from the reel before you can change the boat's course in order to recover as much as possible before the line has reached its end.

From my experience it is well to inform the beginner to be very careful to use thumbstalls made of light twine to protect the fingers from being burned by the quick run-out of the line from the reel during the sailfish's run.

In fishing for the Anglers' Contest the requirements for each member competing for the prizes are the use of a 6 ounce tip and a 12 thread line. The experienced fisherman immediately knows that this is somewhat a lighter tackle and requires great skill.

In fishing for sailfish some of the essential things are to have a fast motor boat with very reliable motive power and an experienced native captain and assistant. The motor boats generally used by the fishermen in the vicinity of the Palm Beaches are from 30 to 50 feet long and arranged in the rear cockpit are two small swivel chairs tightly fastened to the floor of the cockpit. Generally one or two persons troll at a time. The ideal outfit to use is a split bamboo rod, from 6 to 10 ounces in weight, a 6-0 reel with approximately 300 yards of 12 to 18 thread green line. At the end of the line a swivel with from 8 to 12 feet of No. 7 steel leader wire is attached with a No. 9-0 hook, properly wired thereto. When two persons are trolling at the same time it is well to have both baits at the same distance out from the stern, that is from 170 to 200 feet.

It is my experience that it pays to be very alert to strikes made either on your line or that of the other fellow alongside of you. A common practice of experienced fishermen is to let both lines run back at the time the tap of the sailfish is made on either one of the lines. Mr. Sailfish may decide he prefers the bait on the other line and therefore you may receive the first thrill, that of the strike, and your partner may be the fortunate one to hook the fish. I have experienced this on two occasions while fishing for sailfish. Sometimes both are rewarded with strikes at the same time and are successful in landing them without fouling each other's lines.

A great deal of patience is necessary in sailfishing. You are sometimes rewarded very quickly after the start is made. The motor of the speed boat is throttled down and the trolling is about the speed of four miles per hour. The native captain of the boat, being familiar with the locality and feeding grounds of the sailfish steers the boat in different directions until the strike is made. The clutch of the motor is thrown out and the boat comes to a decided stop, while your skill is used in trying to hook Mr. Sailfish. I have often seen sailfish leap out of the water some distance away from the boat, in the act of play, rising at a sharp angle to clear the surface only to flop back into the water like a heavy mass, throwing spray and foam in a great splash.

The sailfish must be hungry and ready to feed or you have only a slim chance, even with the most appetizing bait and perfect skill in handling the tackle. In order to be successful at sailfishing one should stay away from schools of small fish, which give considerable trouble snapping at the bait. I have had the experience of losing several other kinds of fish due to the fact that the art of hooking sailfish is quite different than hooking, for instance, kingfish or bluefish. In sailfishing it is not wise to be too hasty in trying to hook your victim; in kingfishing or bluefishing this is just the reverse. You are bound to lose the kingfish or bluefish if any of your line is allowed to slacken once he strikes. To be successful in sailfishing you must accomplish the art of getting him hooked—the rest is easy if you keep cool and do not allow the line to slack. The sailfish must be will hooked otherwise he will gain his freedom in the first few seconds of his mad fight. If you do not believe the line gets hot just smell or touch it after the run has been made with the tension set fairly heavy on the drag.

It is always well to have the boat manipulated in such a way that the fish is always astern. An inexperienced captain can usually make a lot of trouble for you by allowing the fish to get ahead of the boat, thus allowing the line to be taken under the bow of the boat which finally means disaster. The use of a heavy leather belt and socket for the butt of the rod to rest therein is advisable.

The length of time required to land Mr. Sailfish usually depends upon whether the fish is a large one or a small one. The small one, approximately 6 to 7 feet, puts up a better fight than one exceeding this length. During the three weeks period of sailfishing I have been rewarded with my tenth sailfish, which happened to be the longest, measuring 7 feet 10½ inches. It usually takes about thirty minutes to an hour to bring Mr. Sailfish alongside your craft, ready to be gaffed and lifted to the cockpit of the boat. Upon landing Mr. Sailfish in the boat the monster immediately pounds the cockpit floor with resounding blows from his mighty tail. I do not recommend the use of the gaff if a fish can be handled properly by an experienced attendant.

The brownish purple color, blending into a lighter bronze on the back and the brilliant silver on the stomach is quite a sight to see. Other colors, such as blue and gold may be distinguished upon the fish before he dies and loses its luster. The fish is long and slender in form, the large dorsal fin or sail which gives the fish its name, is a gorgeous parchment structure reinforced with many ribs radiating from the backbone. This sail is a beautiful purple and blue and is studded with brown and black spots. In holding this sail to the light it shows a delicate brown translucent tissue. The peculiar features of the sailfish are that the sail and the two quill-like fins on the stomach fold up and can be completely hidden in deep slots in the body of the fish.

In fishing with native fishermen I have been told that the sailfish seldom raise their sails in the water except when angry or attacking their prey. — Reprinted with permission from Wilmington, issue of March, 1930.

Allen LeRoy Hammond, Kansas Beta, Receives Final Summons

BY RALPH C. HAY

Kansas Beta

ALLEN LeRoy Hammond, Kansas Beta, who, though an undergraduate, has taken a very active part in the affairs of his chapter and the national fraternity, passed away at his home in Wichita, Kansas, on Easter Sunday, April 20, 1930. His passing after a brief illness of three weeks came in the final semester of his senior year.

Lee was born in Stafford, Kansas, June 22, 1909, and was reared in Wichita, where his father is a prominent contractor. He was educated in the public schools and was graduated from East High in 1926 a member of the National Honor Society. Besides being the kind of a student teachers take pride in, Lee was a real wide-awake boy; he took part in athletics, was a Boy Scout and a DeMolay.

Upon entering Kansas State Agricultural College, Lee chose architecture as his life work. His ancestors have been builders for generations; indeed, it is said that his ancestors erected the first lighthouse on our Atlantic sea coast. True to his heritage Lee was endeavoring to carry on. He loved his work, and only when he had achieved what he believed to be his very best would he cease his efforts at improvement. On numerous occasions he was known to work all night on his drawing plates and problems.

Lee pledged Sigma Phi Epsilon the first week of his college career and was an active member until his death. As a pledge he was outstanding; he was always ready to do his part and more too. A born leader of men, he soon took up responsibilities and directed his brothers. At the end of his sophomore year he was elected president of the chapter, an honor never before given an underclassman. During the year he was head of the chapter, Kansas Beta made marked progress. With his winning personality, high ideals, and enthusiasm he was an inspiration to all with whom he came in contact. His most popular expression, "Let's go, gang," truly expresses his spirit.

In 1928 Brother Hammond was chosen as delegate from his chapter to the Seattle Conclave. There he took an active part and became well acquainted with the national fraternity. His report of the Conclave to his local chapter was a veritable inspiration to his brothers.

Lee was a great lover of music, especially vocal music. His strong and true voice will always be remembered by those who knew him. He sang in the college glee club, and also led his chapter's songs and serenades. At Seattle he was chosen chairman of the National Songbook Committee. His untimely death halted the work he had just started toward the publication of a revised Sig Ep Songbook.

ALLAN LEROY
HAMMOND

On the campus at Kansas State, Lee was interested in numerous activities. He was a cadet captain in the R. O. T. C. and a member of both Scabbard and Blade and Mortar and Ball, honorary military organizations. He was national president of Mortar and Ball at the time of his death. As a freshman he won scholarship honors, and he later served as president of the architects' Gargoyle Club. He was especially popular in his "department," that of architecture. His classmates and instructors enjoyed working with him, for he was an exceptional and talented student ready to cooperate to his utmost. He was always optimistic and fun-loving yet he never forgot the business and efficiency side of things.

This sudden passing of a young life so full of promise of a bright future of service for his fellow man has been a tremendous blow to Kansas Beta. Thirty-eight actives and pledges took time from classes to attend his funeral in Wichita. The last issue of the chapter publication, The Hoop of Steel, is a memorial number dedicated to him. It contains heartfelt appreciations to him written by the professor at the head of his department, the chapter president, his house mother, and Brothers Jack Resch and Jack Clark who were the closest and best loved of his fraternity brothers.

Though Brother Allen LeRoy Hammond has passed on to that chapter eternal, his spirit, loyalty and love for the brotherhood of Sigma Phi Epsilon will long endure in the hearts and lives of his brothers in the fraternity.

IN MEMORIAM, F. O. S.

"You go a long and lonely journey,
For all the stars like burning dew,
Are luminous and luring footprints
Of souls adventurous as you.

Ah, if you lived on earth elated,
How is it now that you can run
Free of the weight of flesh, and faring Far past the birthplace of the sun?"

—SARA TEASDALE.

"Ah, my Beloved, fill the Cup that clears
Today of past regret and future fears;
Tomorrow!—Why, tomorrow I may be Myself with yesterday's hev'n thousand years."

Life Membership Total Reaches 5,405

430 Alumni Have Become Life Members by Acceptance of Plan Evolved at Columbus Conclave in 1923

OF the features which have gone to make up the steady march of progress which has characterized Sigma Phi Epsilon in recent years, none has been more encouraging or gratifying than the additions to the list of life members both by initiation and by payment of $25.00. Life membership at $25.00 entitles a member to a life subscription to the SIGMA PHI EPSILON JOURNAL, to the exemption from all further National Alumni dues, to the placement for life on the mailing list of the Central Office and numerous other benefits. The necessity for such payment falls only on those members initiated before August 1, 1924, on which date the initiation fee was so increased as to make all men life members upon initiation.

The present plan of dealing with Life Membership was initiated by the Chicago Alumni Resolution Number 17 of the twelfth Grand Chapter Conclave meeting at Columbus (December 27-29, 1923):

"Resolved, That the Grand Chapter initiation fee after August 1, 1924, be thirty-five ($35.00) dollars, and that the annual fee for each active member shall be ten ($10.00) dollars; that each initiate paying the said initiation fee, and each Alumnus who pays a lump sum of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, and each active member who shall pay on or before July 31, 1924, an additional fifteen ($15.00) dollars initiation fee paid by him at the time of his initiation shall be exempt from further Grand Chapter Alumni Dues and shall be entitled to a life subscription of the JOURNAL, and be it further

"Resolved, That fifteen ($15.00) dollars of the said Grand Chapter thirty-five ($35.00) dollars initiation fee and all of the said twenty-five ($25.00) dollars paid by the Alumni and Active members, respectively, be placed in the Endowment Fund, etc."

On the motion of former Grand President A. P. Dippold this resolution was endorsed in principal by the Conclave and referred to the sub-chapters and Alumni chapters for final consideration and approval. Excerpts from the explanatory material sent to the chapters along with the resolution in question are quoted for clarity:

"The objects of the Endowment Plan presented at the Columbus Conclave may be summed up as follows:

1. To stabilize the finances of the fraternity.
2. To place every initiate in good financial standing with the fraternity for life.
3. To insure the continuance of a high class Traveling Secretary.
4. To insure the continuance of a high class Editor of the JOURNAL.
5. To provide a fund from which the chapters may borrow to build homes."

"The present plan of annual Alumni Dues is very unsatisfactory. The cost of collection is too great for the return, and too small a proportion of the Alumni respond. It is only through the payment of the specified Alumni Dues that the JOURNAL may be obtained. * * * Only about 15% are getting the JOURNAL."

"The Endowment Plan provides the following effective August 1, 1924:

"Increase the Grand Chapter Initiation Fee from $15.00 to $35.00.

"Increase the Per Capita Tax from $5.00 to $10.00.

"Of the $35.00 initiation fee, fee, $15.00 is to be placed in the Endowment Fund and each initiate after August 1, 1924, is to be exempt from further Alumni Dues and is to "The payments of $15.00 by the active men and $25.00 by the alumni to go into the Endowment Fund.

"In order for any fraternity organization to be strong it must have loyal and adequate alumni support. If we can assure this support at the time of initiation, we will have practically solved our alumni problem."

As would be expected this forward looking plan met with the enthusiastic endorsement of the several chapters. As a result of its adoption the Endowment Fund has increased appreciably and the attendant benefits to Sigma Phi Epsilon have increased in a like ratio. The task of collecting Alumni Dues has been made unnecessary and along with it the unpleasantness of dunning alumni for these dues has disappeared. By virtue of becoming Life Members with initiation the percentage of the membership receiving the JOURNAL, which is in so many cases the member's only contact with the fraternity, has greatly increased. And, as stated at the outset, the number of alumni who have become Life Members by the payment of the prescribed $25.00 has grown in slightly more than five years to the pleasing number of 430. One of the flattering aspects of this growth in the number of Life Members among those initiated before 1924 is that it has been largely voluntary. There has, to be sure, been a yearly form letter regarding Life Membership sent out by the Central Office and periodical reminders have gone to those members who were becoming Life Members on the partial payment plan. But there has not been what might be called a consistent or continuous campaign for Life Membership in which the Central Office, the Alumni and Active Chapters joined forces. Generally speaking the 430 men who have become Life Members have done so because they felt a sincere need for closer association with the fraternity. The letter of Brother Orange B. Chamberlain, Oregon Alpha, is typical of many of a like nature. Brother Chamberlain writes:

"Enclosed please find my check for $25.00 in payment of my Life Membership in Sigma Phi Epsilon.

"Thanks to your occasional letters the desire to pay up has been kept fresh in my mind. I will especially appreciate the JOURNAL now in that I have been without it for so long. I hope and expect never to be so out of touch with the work of our fraternity as I have been during the last few years."

A similar expression of opinion is found in the letter of Robert A. Keilty, M. D., Pennsylvania Delta, who writes:

"Enclosed you will find my check for $25.00 for Life Membership in Sigma Phi Epsilon.

"This proves that if one keeps everlastingly at something success may eventually be reached. I well remember our meetings in Philadelphia in 1905 or 1906 when the fraternity was not so strong as it is today and when I took quite an interest in local affairs. I have been interested all of these years and know that you have been carrying on an excellent work, and while I have been interested it would seem that I have neglected my share of the responsibility * * *"

These letters are typical of dozens of others which might well be quoted —expressions of love and affection for the fraternity as strong and devoted as in under-graduate days, but telling the story of a loss of contact resultant from oversight or individual conditions rather than from any lack of interest.

Sigma Phi Epsilon is growing in a strong and virile way. Changes are being wrought daily. There are those of our members who need to know of these achievements and improvements and, therefore, to have a part in carrying them forward. In most cases this is to be accomplished only by an increase in the number of subscriptions to the JOURNAL through increase in the number of Life Memberships. So long as there are those in our membership who are not Life Members and recipients of the JOURNAL there is work to be done by the Central Office, Alumni and Active Chapters, and by individuals. The following by becoming Life Members on their own initiative have led the way:

SIG FUNICS

BILL PAISLEY, ARKANSAS ALPHA

An order having been placed with the National Old Egg-Cabbage-and-Turnip-Proof Armor Company, Inc., for a complete outfit, we hereby rear a column on which we propose to sit until further notice.

We earnestly hope that the Editor will not try to sit on it.

Tree-sitting, flagpole-sitting, and even lamp-post-sitting have been seriously engaging the best efforts of sturdy and thoughtful young Americans. Not to be outdone, we intend to do some column-sitting.

From the Fyr-Fyter News we glean the suggestion that "we" is used so the man that doesn't like what is written will think that there are too many for him to lick.

* * *

Uncle Billy Phillips was reported as being considerably exercised on reading that television in connection with telephones is a distinct possibility of the future.

"How," he is said to have exclaimed, "can all of me be recorded?"

* * *

An invitation to an alumni affair concluded: Be sure to bring your wife, children, and sweethearts."

It was reported to have been a very rough party.

* * *

The wires have rushed a report in that one of this year's freshmen admitted he'd always thought of deferred rushin' as a freshly shaved Bolshevik.

* * *

"Dresses are now being made of cloth manufactured from banana-peels. Slips-on, doubtless.—Arkansas Gazette.

And recently we might almost have said, "Yes, we have no—" etc.

The dresses referred to above must certainly have appeal.

* * *

After a recent visit to the beach the following effusion burst from our typewriter:

That guy should be beneath the waves,

All tied up in a sack,
Who sang to us last night about
A pat upon the back.

We can be said to have been peeling forth the joys of that excursion ever since.

We have never been so unfortunate as to slip on a banana-peel, but we have done considerable peeling on our pillow-slip.

* * *

A bit late, perhaps, for the summer tourist exodus, but interesting nevertheless, comes this suggestion from Brother H. Albert McMurray of Pennsylvania Eta as to how to prevent sea-sickness in a Scotchman: "Place a quarter in his mouth and tie his hands behind his back."

* * *

And then there was the kilted swain who called up his girl and asked, "When are you going to have a free night?"

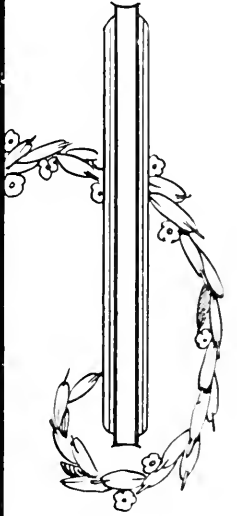

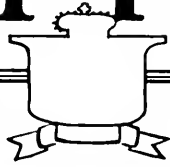

* * *

And Freshman Jane said when she read that Carol might be crowned alone next month she'd crown the old two-timer if she had half a chance with the whole Rumanian army looking on.

* * *

Brother Don Elliott reports that several of the brothers returned from Bigwin with a guilty fillin'.

EDWIN BUCHANAN, Ohio Gamma, characterized by the author of "Ohioans in Caricature" of the Columbus Dispatch for June 14th as: "President of the Ohio National Bank of Columbus. . . Chairman of the National Board of Trustees of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity. . . A rabid Football fan with Golf and Bridge as his favorite diversions."

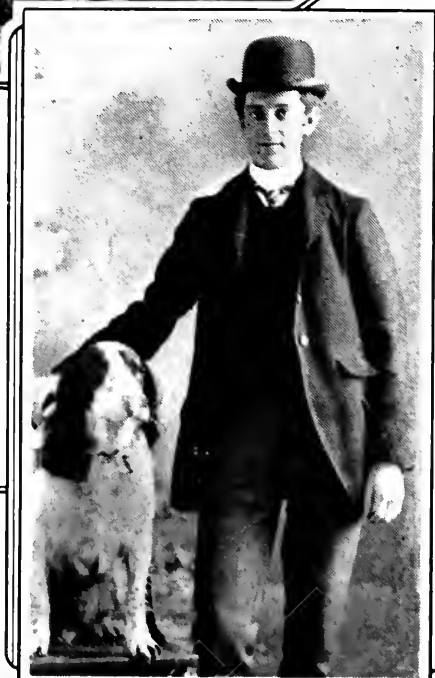

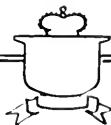

Believe it or not, this is Grand Secretary William L. Phillips as he appeared in 1902. His roommate, Alfonso Calzado, who appears in the lower picture, was responsible for the surreptitious removal of his hirsute adornment.

DR. EARL C. ARNOLD, founder of Kansas Alpha, upon whom the degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred by Baker University at its commencement on June 2. Dr. Arnold has resigned his position as Professor of Law at George Washington University to become Dean of the Law School at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

PAUL AYRES ROCKWELL, Virginia Epsilon, whose latest book, "American Fighters in the Foreign Legion", is now on the press. A review of Brother Rockwell's story of this one of the world's most romantic fighting units, of which he himself is a member, will appear in the next issue of the JOURNAL.

SIG EPICS

Harry Flood Byrd, Virginia Alpha, ex-Governor of Virginia, was hailed by Governor John Garland Pollard as presidential timber in his speech of presentation of the sword of honor to Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd. The sword was donated by citizens of Virginia under a resolution passed by the General Assembly of the state. Governor Pollard paid his tribute to the two famous brothers, Richard Evelyn and Harry Flood Byrd, the latter a member of Virginia Alpha.

"Rare is it for two brothers to come forward in the race of progress at the same time; one in aviation, the other in statecraft. Here may I pause to bow my head in profound respect to the mother of these brothers. Two sons the idols of an admiring people—both brothers young, both with careers just begun. The admiral may turn his attention from the poles to the moon and stars—his brother may turn his eyes from the executive mansion in Richmond to the White House in Washington. Those who know Harry best aver that if Dick can fly over the poles, Harry can fly over the Potomac."

The Rev. Bernard N. Lovgren, Minnesota Alpha, 1914, has resigned as rector of the Joplin parish of the Episcopalean diocese of western Missouri to accept a position as associate rector of the Emmanuel Episcopal church of Boston. While in Joplin Mr. Lovgren was very prominent in civic and community affairs, being connected with the Community Chest, Chamber of Commerce, Boy Scouts and other organizations. In the work of the church he was an executive councilman of his diocese, a chairman of religious education, and a member of the field department.

W. H. Eastman, New Hampshire Alpha, and former Grand President has recently been elected president of the Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce. He is president of the William O. Goodrich company in addition to the many other duties that he has undertaken.

It is with considerable pleasure that we note the election of Henry J. Porter, Jr. to the Divan of the Mystic Shrine in Birmingham, Ala. Those who were interested in securing a charter for Alabama Gamma will remember the efforts put forth by Brother Porter, himself a member of Virginia Theta, to aid the granting of a charter to the present Alabama Gamma. With his ability and capacity in fraternal work we are sure that Brother Porter will go far in any organization with which he may become connected.

Dale Martin, Kansas Gamma, has recently started on a year's trip through South America. Starting from Bogota, Columbia, he plans to cross the Andes and continue his trip after making the crossing of the mountains. His brother Emery J. Martin, Kansas Gamma, is at present with the Curtiss-Wright Flying Service and piloted the plane which carried a party from the University of Kansas on a tour of Kansas and Missouri in the interest of the rodeo and relays, held at Lawrence George Drayton Strayer, Professor of Education at Teachers College, Columbia University, and a member of Virginia Delta, was recently the honor guest at a dinner given by his friends, colleagues and students in recognition of the completion of twenty-five years of service to the university. His former students presented a portrait of him to the institution. Among his former students are school superintendents, college administrators, and research officers throughout the world.

In his address he remarked that if public education is to keep pace with the demands that are made upon it it will be because teachers recruit for the administrative service a group of able men, professionally trained to administer this most important governmental service. He advised the development and refinement of methods of organization and classification of pupils.

Beginning his work in 1905 he became professor of educational administration in 1910 and is now director of the division of field studies. During the World War he was home director of the Y. M. C. A. Overseas Educational Commission and director of the school campaign for the national war savings committee of the United States treasury department.

Roy Riegels, California Alpha, and our 1930 captain of the All-Sip Ep football team, is returning to his Alma Mater as freshman football coach. Reigels will be remembered by all football fans for his tragic run in the Tournament of Roses game with Georgia Tech, but even more so for his strong come back in the last season when he was captain of the California team. A well deserved tribute is that paid him in the current issue of College Humor: "This season the freshman football squad will learn to tackle, clip, charge, buck and run (?) under the tutelage of an old college chum of this department, Mr. Roy Riegels. With this appointment, sportsdom will get an able coach, a clean athlete and best of all, a young man with that greatest of all virtues, a good sense of humor." California Alpha will also have another man back as a coach besides Riegels, Alva Ragan. Ragan will again be freshman track coach. Both of these men are capable and their appointment occasioned California Alpha no surprise.

A rare treat is in store for certain of the chapters of Sigma Phi Epsilon in the near future, for Paul Rockwell, Virginia Epsilon, aviator, author and globe trotter par excellence, is to visit them. Writing to Grand Secretary Phillips on the stationery of "Trench and Air," an association of American Volunteer Combatants in the French Army 1914-1918, of which he is official historian, Brother Rockwell says:

"We arrived in America just one month ago, and apart from some discomfort caused by the intense heat, have been enjoying ourselves greatly. We spent three weeks in New York, Massachusetts, and Maine, seeing old friends, my publishers, and some magazine editors. My book, "American Fighters in the Foreign Legion," is being printed by Houghton Mifflin Company for the fall season; they are getting out a very handsome volume, which I hope will meet with success. I had lunch with "Steamer" Nason in Boston; he is well, and had just finished a new boow for Houghton Mifflin. He is coming to Winston-Salem, N. C., late in August for an American Legion convention, and I hope he can come over to Asheville for a day or so with me.

"I find there are about fifth or sixty Sig Eps in and around Asheville, quite a change from twenty years ago, when we were only five or six, and fighting hard to hold our own with other fraternities. The brothers here are well organized, and have a monthly luncheon. I went to one today; more than twenty men were present, and it was a most enjoyable gathering. I cannot get up to the Conclave, much to my regret, but I surely hope to visit you in Richmond in the late summer or early fall. I plan to be on this side until at last the end of October, and am looking forward to some good talks with you. The boys were speaking of you today with great affection, and attribute the wonderful progress of our fraternity to your work.

"I plan to travel around a bit this fall, and should like to call on as many chapters as possible. I have never outgrown my love for the fraternity, and it makes me feel much younger to get with the active men once in a while."

It is needless to say that the days of Brother Rockwell's visits to such chapters as are so fortunate to be visited by him will long be red letter days in the annals of those chapters, for few Sig Eps have had such colorful careers as has been his.

The feature speaker at the noonday luncheon of the Milwaukee Rotary Club on August 5, was Dr. Hilton Ira Jones. Dr. Jones is a charter member of Oklahoma Alpha, having been the second man to be initiated into that chapter. His record as summarized in the latest Who's Who is as follows:

"Hilton Ira Jones, Chemist and Lecturer; born in Mankato, Minn., May 9, 1882; the son of Addison Sprague and Alice Nancy (Hilton) Jones; A. B. Parker College, Winnebago, Minn., 1903; A. M. Drake University, 1904; Harvard University, 1906-08; fellow in Chemistry, University of Chicago, 1908-09; Ph.D., University of South Dakota, 1916; married Blanche Pinkerton of Des Moines, Iowa, June 16, 1908. Teacher of Science, East High School, Des Moines, Iowa, 1904-06; chemist for B. O. and G. C. Wilson, manufacturing pharmacists, Boston, 1907; professor chemistry, Central High School, Muskogee, Okla., 1909-12; professor of chemistry, Dakota Wesleyan University, 1912-18; professor of chemistry and chemical engineering Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College, 1918-22; Director Scientific Research and Redpath Bureau since 1922; fellow A. A. A. A. S., the Chemical Society (London); member American Chemical Society, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Psi, Kappa Delta Pi; member Disciples of Christ, Mason (K. T. Scottish Rite), contributor to scientific publications and scientific lecturer."

An appreciation of Brother Jones which will also be of interest to Sig Eps is that which appears in a publication of the Redpath Bureau: "The distinguished scientist, Dr. Hilton Ira Jones, comes from the chemical laboratory to bring to audiences the precious laws of physical and spiritual health newly discovered by modern chemistry, and to tell the tremendous, almost unbelievable developments which science is promising for the future. Success of every kind—spiritual, physical, financial—he believes is possible for every man or woman who learns and uses the great animating principles of life which science is unfolding.

"Doctor Jones is a noted man, a scientist who is recognized and honored all over the world. He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Chemical Society (London), a member of the American Chemical Society and many other learned organizations in this country and abroad.

"Doctor Jones is that rare thing, a scientific speaker who yet has the popular touch; the knack of getting his meaning over in the simplest, most vivid way. He makes his story fascinating and thrilling to the lay-mind, for he is a master of lay words."

With the belief that Sig Eps will take pleasure in hearing again of the doings and whereabouts of the family of Clifford Scott the following clipping from the convention number of the official publication of Alpha Chi Omega is reprinted:

XI GIRL DIRECTS

CONVENTION MUSIC

By JEAN UPSALL, Beta Delta

Do you remember the distinguished looking lady who was introduced to us at the Saturday afternoon meeting as Mrs. Scott, convention music director? Be sure to put her on your list of those with whom to become personally acquainted or you will certainly have missed part of the convention.

As you know, Marjorie Hesseltine Scott is most important in our fraternity for her music. She has had charge of the Alpha Chi Omega song book for the past six years and was the editor of the new edition.

Mrs. Scott is proudly claimed by Xi chapter although she has been affiliated with the Kappa Kappa alumnae chapter and acted as chapter alumna chairman there.

Formerly Mrs. Scott's home was in O'Neill, Nebraska, but since the death of her husband, who was National Editor of the Sigma Phi Epsilon magazine, she has made her home in Los Angeles. There she has continued her musical work and has organized the Marjorie Hesseltine Scott trio of violin, cello and piano.

Mrs. Scott tells us that she has a little "Sig Ep" and a little Alpha Chi. The Sig Ep is Kentner, four and a half, and the Alpha Chi is Shirley, who is two years old. Each active chapter will hope that Shirley comes to them for she is sure to be outstanding and charming just as her mother is.

Tucson, Arizona, was the scene of a Sig Ep dinner not so long since which was arranged by Frank W. Luther, Alabama Alpha, '28. The dinner was attended, in addition to Luther, by J. D. Sullivan, Montana Alpha, '21, E. K. Pryor, Ohio Gamma, '29, James Blacksell, California Alpha, '10, Robert E. Randall, Ohio Epsilon, '24, and Joseph Dunlap. These brothers report that the dinner proved, among other things, that the old line to the effect that "East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall meet" is all wrong—at least where Sig Eps are concerned. East not only met West, but enjoyed it—and how!

Dr. Paul B. Yates, Virginia Epsilon '25, recently became a member of the faculty of the Department of Anatomy in the Medical School of Ohio State University. The appointment of one so young to a position of such trust would seem to tell the story of a brilliant record having been made by Brother Yates in his career thus far.

The current issue of Banta's Greek Letter Exchange reminds us that "J Audrey Clarke (Vermont Beta '26) is a playwright of note in Hollywood. Mr. Clarke is also a director and actor of no mean ability."

The walls of one of the private dining rooms of John Jay Hall, Columbia University, witnessed an unique function on August 12 when ten Sig Eps—students and instructors in the Columbia summer session—representing eight chapters gathered for dinner and for an old fashioned get-together. Affairs of state generally and matters pedagogical more particularly came in for a certain amount of the discussion, to be sure, but as would be expected the major portion of the evening was given to Sigma Phi Epsilon and to an exchange of ideas as to its activities and policies in the sections represented. So enjoyable and so beneficial was the gathering thought to be that it was decided to make it a yearly affair. The date and place settled on for a similar meeting to be held next summer were: Dining Room No. 3, John Jay Hall, second Wednesday of the coming (1931) summer session. Sig Eps who will be in attendance at Columbia next summer are urged to get in touch with John C. Hopkins who will also be there either upon arrival at Columbia or during the coming year, addressing him in care of the Cambridge High School, Cambridge, Ohio.

From the following list is to be had the names of those who attended this dinner, along with their chapters and the places where they will be located during the coming school year: Dean George D. Strayer, Virginia Delta, Columbia University; Dr. Nels Bengston, Nebraska Alpha, University of Nebraska; Dr. Harry A. Scott, Oregon Beta, Rice Institute, Houston, Texas; Gilbert L. Hermance, Oregon Beta, Rice Institute, Houston, Texas; George H. Hand, West Virginia Beta, University High School, Morgantown, West Virginia; Henry N. Wood, New Hampshire Alpha, Columbia University; John C. Hopkins, Kansas Beta, Cambridge High School, Cambridge, Ohio; John F. Strayer, Virginia Delta, Columbia University; Simon Maroney, Delaware Alpha, Wilmington High School, Wilmington, Del.; Fred H. Korth, Texas Alpha, University of Texas.

From West Virginia Beta comes word of a memorial having been erected to the memory of former Traveling Secretary Dan D'Aiuto whose passing in 1928 brought an untimely end to a career with unusual promise. The memorial which Dan's brothers have established to keep his memory fresh in their own minds as well as to serve as inspiration to those who are to come after them, is in the form of a bronze heart nine inches high and eleven inches wide, with an inscription giving a chronology of the dates in Brother D'Aiuto's life, and particularly those which had to do with Sigma Phi Epsilon, and bearing as a final statement: "He was a man and a real brother." The plaque occupies the place of honor in the West Virginia Beta house, being attached to the mantel in the living room in the very center of the many trophies of the chapter in the winning of many of which Dan had a large share. In taking this action West Virginia Beta has displayed a sentiment which is a beautiful tribute to the memory of one who so well exemplified the ideals of Sigma Phi Epsilon, an action which is commendable and to be emulated.

There will be no true freedom without virtue, no true science without religion, no true industry without the fear of God and love of your fellow-citizens.—Charley Kingsley.

Perhaps the most patent fact observable in regard to a vital organism is that it can not remain static—it must progress or degenerate. One sees the phenomenon in every recorded item of political history as it applies to the human aggregate organisms that we call society or more particularly states. One can also observe it in the growth and development of animals, plants, and even human beings with which he is thrown into contact. So it is with another of those human organizations that we know as the college, theoretically a miniature community established by the larger society for the nurture of its young, but what is in many respects more important, the nurture of their intellects and their very souls.

THE LIBERAL IN EDUCATION

Keen observers have noticed the trend in recent years. It has followed, as has been the case with industry and economic development, the path of the census changes. Older communities, notably New England, have settled the problems of their educational institutions and have evolved them into establishments more settled in their characteristics. But they are not static as witnesses the change of Harvard to the "House Plan" and of Yale to the "Quad System." These, with the experimental college of Dr. Alexandre Meikeljohn at Wisconsin, are the beginnings of new channels for the flow of collegiate education that may change the whole complexion of the American system.

Well may the fraternity and the fraternity member keep his finger on the pulse that beats below these changes as an indication of the change that is taking place within his own world. They are but symptoms of the change that is gradually seeping into the whole of American life. In the early years of our own century the frontier was closed. Soon the population spread over the major part of the country. Now we are maturing into a nation, a race, gradually separating from our fundamental European origin to develop a culture of our own, already begun, and bring it to flower.

That this has a definite relation to education is so evident that it is trite to refer to it. But it is the underlying cause of our change in colleges and it is the basis of the further changes that will come.

These changes that are being instituted and the ends to which they are working are directed to the creation of an atmosphere of more liberality in the college training. Some may object to the "accumulation of junk left over from the Middle Ages," in our college curricula; others may object to other features, but the trend is to make the college more and more a breeding ground for culture.

The real problem in devising a scheme that will produce an educated individual does not lie wholly with the evolution of different methods in teaching or administering the system. Nominally, at least, colleges have always been producing the educated product. That they have not in all cases done so is a well known fact. Still the blame cannot be laid on the college. Educating a man or producing a cultured product lies finally in the production of an attitude of mind on the part of the individual, an attitude that sees through the ostensible to the underlying forces, that can segregate the various elements of those forces, evaluate them, and appreciate the better from the worse, and the best from the better, an attitude, in finis, that can discriminate to the finest distillation and appreciate these subtle distinctions that change the fact of existence into the art of enjoying life not as a capering faun, the passing joy of the moment, but the enjoyment that comes from the complete exhaustion of the fuller life.

So the cultured man does not see the blade of grass as a botanical specimen or less but as a concatenation of artistic lines that Nature has woven into a masterpiece of organization. This he sees in all objects, whether they are works of nature or of man. He must expend mental effort. He must analyze his objects with the lines drawn in his mind's eye and his sounds with the more indefinite, more mysterious, but by the same token, the more fascinating and satisfying attunement of his "mind's ear" to the finer sounds that have been woven as the music of the Scheme in which we live.

This is our duty. As college men we are supposed to be trained, not as encyclopedic catalogues of facts, but as throbbing, cerebrating organisms that can pick from the chaos of the Machine Age the gold that Providence has benevolently strewn. Unless we do this we are not cultured men; we have disavowed our fraternity ideal.

It is passing strange that many adults who give the utmost study to methods of improving and caring for the welfare of the output of their farms and factories fail to recognize the need for the application of the same care and study to the welfare of their own and other people's boys. The future, the destiny of the world depends largely upon the boy crop being turned out each year by the high schools and preparatory schools of the country. It is this boy crop, many of the elements in the welfare of which are neglected, overlooked, or made impossible of being cared for by parents and college officials, because of failure to recognize the need, distance or the fact that the boy is away from home, the bustle of the work-a-day world in which the parent finds himself involved, or the great number and great amount of detail being handled by college administrators, which Sigma Phi Epsilon and her sister organizations have accepted as their particular province with the belief that the boy crop is, after all, the most important of all the crops produced. The provision of the all-important bed and board, and funds sufficient to guarantee attendance at classes is not enough. There must be something more. Sigma Phi Epsilon seeks to fill this breach by providing the inspiration of a beautiful ideal made real by impressive ritualism, by providing living conditions which duplicate as nearly as possible the conditions of the home at a time when there is taking place the greatest readjustment in the boy's life, by providing wholesome companionships looking toward the formation of worthy life-long friendships, by teaching the boys how to live, work, and play together seeking, the while, trying to create in them a group responsibility which will carry over and serve as a background for them when they come to assume the responsibilities of citizenship, and by providing a real incentive to scholastic attainment. In seeking to accomplish these ends Sigma Phi Epsilon tries ever to live up to the advice of Elbert Hubbard who, in speaking of the boy crop, once said:

"Be patient with the boys. You are dealing with soul-stuff. Destiny waits just around the corner. Boys evolve into men, and men sometimes change boundary lines of states. They make political parties, they crown kings, and they put them to flight. They bring contention or they make peace. They may build or they may destroy.

"But boys misused, abused, betrayed, never forget and seldom forgive. It is a terrible thing to plant the germ of suspicion and hate in the mind of a boy.

"The hope of the race lies with the boys. In a year or two we will be going to hear them preach from pulpits; we may go to them to borrow money; they may operate on us for appendicitis—aye, they may preach our funeral sermons. Nobody can prophesy the success to which a boy will attain. Difficulty, trial, hardship, these are things that evolve boys into men. Boys can be led. They cannot be driven. Be patient with the boys. You are dealing with soul-stuff. Destiny awaits around the corner."

The condemning of Hell week, rough house initiations, paddling, and other such practices as tend to humiliate freshmen needlessly, to say nothing of running the risk of injuring them temporarily or even permanently, has become traditional in these columns. Brother FRESHMAN DISCIPLINE Scott's condemnation of these antiquated practices was uncompromising and his praise of those chapters which had thrown off the shackles of the past and abolished them was homeric. In taking this stand he was expressing the seasoned opinion of the members of the Interfraternity Conference and of the executives and most of the chapters of Sigma Phi Epsilon. A few chapters have clung tenaciously to the old practice of paddling and other corporal punishment for freshman with the mistaken belief that it is necessary for the enforcement of discipline. To all chapters, but especially to the last named group, we offer a solution of the problems of freshman discipline advanced by former Traveling Secretary C. H. Freeark—a suggestion which, because of Brother Freeark's varied fraternity experience and observation, must carry especial weight.

It is proposed that each chapter adopt a merit system for freshmen. Under this system a scale of penalties and punishments would be established by the chapter or by the Executive Committee of the Chapter. These would be clearly explained to each freshman who would begin his pledgeship with a perfect score of 100 points. For insubordination, ungentlemanly conduct, failure to attend meetings, lack of application to studies and other things which in the eyes of the chapter and in accord with the previously adopted scale constitute offences, the prescribed number of demerits would be given by the chapter Executive Committee after the investigation of the charges brought by the several members of the chapter. It is suggested that 50 demerits defer initiation of the offender for thirty days, 80 demerits defer initiation for sixty days, and that for 100 demerits the pledge pin be withdrawn.

PROGRAM OF RICHMOND ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MARKED BY PLEASURABLE SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

By I. H. WAINWRIGHT, Secretary

The period since last a news letter appeared has been marked by considerable activity on the part of Richmond Alumni. The regime of President G. A. C. Jennings was brought to a fitting close by a bridge party of eight tables on March 7. The presence of the ladies and the attractive prizes offered made competition unusually keen and added all manner of zest to the party. After the party a business meeting was held at which the following officers for the coming year were elected: Robert Gale, Virginia Alpha, President; G. S. Richardson, Virginia Alpha, Vice President; and I. H. Wainwright, Virginia Eta, Secretary and Treasurer.

On May 9 there was held what the committee on arrangements—Rodney C. Berry, Robert Gale and R. Y. Edwards—was pleased to call a District Whoopee Party. This function, which was attended by some ninety-five brothers representing the chapters—Active and Alumni—in the District of Columbia, Virginia, and North Carolina, was more ambitious than anything undertaken by the chapter for some years. The program was officially opened by a banquet at the Hotel Richmond which was presided over by Toastmaster Callom B. Jones whose aptitude at this sort of thing will long be remembered by those who attended the final banquet of the Richmond Conclave when he served in a like role. The guest of honor for the evening was State Supreme Court Judge Edward Wren Hudgins who, like the toastmaster, is to be remembered for his addresses at the Richmond Conclave. Music for the banquet was furnished by the orchestra from the Roof Garden of the hotel and their program was interspersed by ballet and vaudeville numbers which met with marked appreciation.

The banquet was followed by a dance at 518 West Franklin St., which was attended by something over a hundred couples. Music for the dance was furnished by the "Six Sons of Satan" of the University of Richmond. Those in attendance, and especially does this apply to the ladies, enjoyed the Lucky Number dances for which prizes were given.

The most recent function was a dinner at the University Club. This time the entertainment was in the form of moving pictures of the peringrinations of Grand Secretary Phillips. Of the reels shown perhaps the most interesting were those depicting his recent air travels in the west. At a business meeting preceding the dinner W. I. Dixon was elected Conclave Delegate with Rodney C. Berry as alternate.

The luncheons at 1:00 p. m. on Friday at the Chamber of Commerce Club are a weekly occurrence and continue to be a source of pleasure to Sig Eps, local and transient.

AK-SAR-BEN ALUMNI MAKE PLANS FOR AIDING CHAPTERS IN THEIR VICINITY IN RUSHING—HOT WEATHER HAS NO EFFECT ON ATTENDANCE AT REGULAR MONTHLY MEETINGS.

By W. J. KRUG, Secretary

The regular monthly meeting of Ak-Sar-Ben Alumni Chapter was held on the night of July 11th, which to date has been the hottest day of the year, the thermometer registering 102 degrees. As they say in California—this was unusual weather.

Fifteen brothers were present of a total membership of thirty-five, which is about the usual average. Hot weather has no effect in attendance. In fact, the hotter it is, the better the attendance. And there may be a good reason for this. Some said it was because we were to lay plans for escorting good fraternity timber to the various schools this fall, while others said they wanted to mingle with the brothers and talk over old times. You see, we get away from business worries—but fifteen out of thirty-five is a mighty good average.

At this meeting, for the first time, was Brother S. K. McKee of Virginia Alpha. Brother McKee is of the true Sig Ep type. At present he is with the U. S. Department of Justice, 480 Saunders-Kennedy Building, Omaha. We wish him success in his new location.

Lon Graf, who has completed several very successful seasons as Coach at Peru State Normal School, has accepted a position as assistant coach at Creighton University, Omaha. "Fat" is a graduate of Mr. Rochne's Coaching School.

Dr. Purney is still grinding out molars. Doctors Carman and Slattery, same profession, spend many of their late afternoons and evenings on the golf courses. The former has a good time while the latter holds, jointly, several course records and honors.

Leo Lowry, who weighs 212, but can still put the palms of his hands on the floor without bending his knees, is making a splendid record as coach at South High. He has six men lined up who plan to attend Nebraska University this fall.

Walter Johnson, between trips to the court room to argue cases, still flies high. He is at present spending his vacation as an instructor in aviation at the R. O. T. C. camp at Fort Crook.

Brothers Van Horn and Colby are the money men of the Omaha Alumni. The former is with the Omaha National Bank and the latter with the U. S. National Bank.

A. W. Walker has recently turned to old time songs. He can be heard most any day humming that old song "Place me among the girls, those with the curly curls." Down at the power company where he has charge of "Power Sales" he is making a splendid record. Perhaps he gets his inspiration from the girls in the office—who knows?

Bill Wencel and Marion Van Scoy are operating the Phone Company. Bill in the General Accounting Department and Van in the Engineering Department.

No meetings will be held in August. The entertainment committee is planning a picnic for the latter part of the month. On this occasion we plan to invite the new men we expect to recommend for the fraternity. In September we will start our regular monthly meetings again.

NEW YORK ALUMNI TOOK ACTIVE PART IN INSTALLATION OF NEW YORK GAMMA—SIG EPS NEW TO NEW YORK REQUESTED TO COMMUNICATE WITH SECRETARY OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

By WILLIAM C. HEIDELBERGER, Secretary

In the quiet of the summer it is hard to bring Sig Eps together to get as much news as the editor of the JOURNAL could use. (Golf scores are so unreliable).

The biggest event of the year past for the New York Alumni has been the installation of Theta Sigma Phi local at New York University as New York Gamma chapter. Many of the boys, at the sacrifice of business time, were on hand to help Brother Phillips with the work of installation. No doubt the presence of a live chapter in the city will stimulate us to take a more active interest in Sigma Psi Epsilon.

New officers were elected last July. They are: S. S. Keeney, President; G. T. Walne, Jr., First Vice President; Robert W. Kelly, Second Vice President; W. C. Heidelberg, Secretary; J. Irwin Cerf, Treasurer.

All 1930 graduates who have come to New York are requested to get in touch with the Alumni Association. The address of the Secretary is: 61 East Ninth Street, New York City.

Help us to build a live interested body of alumni here in New York.

BIRMINGHAM ALUMNI UNDERTAKE AMBITIOUS PROGRAM OF ASSISTANCE TO THE THREE CHAPTERS IN THE IMMEDIATE VICINITY.

By MORGAN BAKER, Secretary

Luther Bewley, Tennessee Alpha, was re-elected president of the Birmingham Alumni Chapter at its July meeting. Ralph Russell, Virginia Eta, was elected vice president and Morgan Baker, Alabama Gamma, secretary.

With the installation of Alabama Gamma at Howard College in May, there are now three active Sig Ep chapters in the immediate vicinity of Birmingham: Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn; and the University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa. Members from these three schools have been attending the luncheon meetings of the Birmingham Alumni Chapter during the summer and have kept up enthusiasm among the grads to a great extent.

Co-operation between active chapters in the state and alumni from virtually every chapter in the roster of Sigma Phi Epsilon now residing in Alabama is being evolved on a systematic basis for the first time since the advent of the Heart into the realm of the Valley of Shades, the Plains of Auburn and the Shores of the Warrior.

Charles E. Leonard is holding final conference with members of Alabama Alpha and architects regarding plans for a new chapter house at the Village of the Plains, construction probably to begin early this fall. Collins Urquhart is leading a movement for more practical assistance in the Birmingham area for Alabama Beta. On the suggestion of Henry J. Porter, Jr., Virginia Theta, the Alumni Chapter voted to meet during the fall term at least once a month with Alabama Gamma.

At the August Alumni meeting, the Cave Room of the Bankhead Hotel was chosen as the regular gathering place for monthly assemblies. The Cave Room is an ideal site for club and fraternity affairs. Its rustic decorations and murals depicting a pirate theme are most unique and consistent for stag luncheons, banquets and other social functions.

ANNUAL ALL SIG EP PICNIC HIGH POINT OF PORTLAND ALUMNI SOCIAL PROGRAM

By W. E. CAMERON, Secretary

The chapter's annual picnic will be held at one of the brother's summer home August 10th. This will be the second annual affair and due to the big success of the picnic on its initial venture everyone is expecting one large day. Last year eighty people attended, including parents, wives and sweethearts.

Oregon Alumni have decided that many of like groups lose interest in the local chapters as the years go by and that as a means to keeping the old spirit boiling the chapter will have to take an active step in the rushing each fall. The hopes of the Oregon Alumni is to have at least one pledge at one of the Oregon chapters that has been rushed, personally taken to the school and have the honor and privilege of placing the button on the prospect's lapel.

Our local alumni group boasts of the fact that any outside Sig Ep who may be in Portland, Oregon, and give us notice or merely an idea that he will be in Portland will receive personal attention and we will consider it a pleasure to help show him a good time.

The first big dinner was held at the University Club, Wednesday, June 4th. This little party started at 6:30 and terminated at midnight. This dinner included an elaborate meal with all the trimmings and the evening was spent, or what have you, in playing cards.

The annual meeting and dinner is the first Wednesday of each month at the Hazelwood Cafe at 6 o'clock.

KANSAS CITY ALUMNI HAVE UNIQUE RUSH PARTY

By THOMAS H. NEAL, 5TH

A unique feature of the Kansas City Alumni program is the annual rush party given to the young men entering any of the colleges in the vicinity of Kansas City who appear to be prospective Sig Ep material. There is no attempt to rush for any given school, but it is the desire of the group only to acquaint these young men with Sigma Phi Epsilon and to become acquainted with them. This year the party was held at the Ambassador Hotel with something over thirty rushees present. Still another rush party will be held early in the school session.

Another function of considerable interest was a dance attended by some forty couples. At one of the meetings for which arrangements for these functions were made, Thomas H. Neal and Raymond Frye were elected Conclave Delegate and Alternate, respectively. Both will be in attendance.

The period since the last news letter appeared has seen several marriages in our group, all of which bodes well for the future of the organization.

"Tolerance means reverence for all the possibilities of Truth; it means acknowledgment that she dwells in diverse mansions, and wears vesture of many colors, and speaks in strange tongues; it means frank respect for freedom of indwelling conscience against mechanic forms, official conventions, social force; it means the charity that is greater than even faith and hope."—John Morley.

If there's no sun, I still can have the moon;
 If there's no moon, the stars my needs suffice;
 And if they fall, I have my evening lamp;
 Or lampless, there's my trusty tallow dip;
 And if the dip goes out, my couch remains
 Where I may sleep and dream there's light again.

In Memoriam

DR. SAMUEL B. NORRIS

Dr. Samuel B. Norris, Illinois Alpha, a beloved brother, died at Tucson, Arizona, May 26, 1930, of spinal meningitis contracted through his tireless efforts in the line of his profession. He was initiated into Illinois Alpha of Sigma Phi Epsilon on February 11, 1906, and was president of the chapter in 1908. He played four years of football at end and center and was captain of the team in 1908. He was graduated in 1908, the degree of Doctor of Medicine and Doctor of Surgery being conferred upon him at that time. During the World War Doctor Norris served his country as captain in the United States Medical Corps.

Following the war he entered the Indian Service of the government and did marvelous medical and surgical work among the southern Arizona Indians. Later he opened his own office in Tucson and became known as one of the best tubercular specialists in the southwest. He was beloved by thousands of sick persons whom he had benefitted and was known to all as a gentleman, being ever a credit to his profession and to Sigma Phi Epsilon.

CLAUDE ALLISON DARWIN

Claude Allison Darwin, 23, Alabama Gamma, Howard College, died May 16 at his home, 7615 Second Avenue, South, Birmingham, following an illness of two weeks of pneumonia.

Brother Darwin is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Darwin, and one sister, Miss Ruth Darwin.

Pallbearers included Tom Huey, William Grimmer, Max Smith, Gene Hall, Julian Stephens, Ward Upton, Paul Spinks, Fred Walpole, Frank Trucks, James Herblin and Morgan Baker.

Brother Darwin was a member of the junior class entering Howard from Woodlawn High School. He was prominently associated with social and fraternal activities including charter membership in Alabama Gamma.

Burial services were held at Scottsboro, Alabama.

ALLEN LEROY HAMMOND

We as brothers of Kansas Beta of Sigma Phi Epsilon, sorrowfully submit a tribute to the memory and true brotherly love and friendship of Brother Allen LeRoy Hammond whom God called from the world on Easter Sunday, April 20, 1930.

Allen LeRoy Hammond was born June 22, 1909, in Stafford, Kansas. He grew to manhood in Wichita, Kansas, where he went through the public schools, being graduated from East High in 1926. Having decided to follow his father's vocation as a builder, he enrolled in architectural engineering at the Kansas State Agricultural College. Here he became affiliated with Kansas Beta of Sigma Phi Epsilon in which he was actively interested until his death.

Hammond was one of the most inspiring and conscientious brothers with whom we have ever associated. He was very active in the fraternity, holding the office of president during his junior year in 1926. His genial personality, his matchless character, his exceptional talent and noble ideals made him one of the ablest workers in the fraternity. As a student he was outstanding. His work was truly that of an artist as well as a student. He was an inspiration to his fraternity brothers, his classmates, and his instructors.

Therefore Be It Resolved:

I. That Kansas Beta chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon deeply regrets the loss of one of its most prominent and devoted brothers in the death of Allen LeRoy Hammond, and his parents a kind, true and inspiring son; and his many friends a loyal and true comrade.

II. That we extend to the bereaved family and friends our sincere and fraternal sympathy, comforting them with the thought that he was a moral inspiration to the fraternity.

III. That a copy of these resolutions be written in the minutes of our fraternity, a copy sent to the bereaved family and a copy embodied in our historian's report to the SIGMA PHI EPSILON JOURNAL.

Respectfully submitted,
GEORGE BROOKOVER,
NILES RESCH,
RALPH HAY.

DAILY PRAYER

*And at last when I go
Will it be so?
Shall I find you behind
The rude platitude of death?
I kneel within the certainty
That you are near to me;
Each day I pray
That I may follow through
To you.
Each day I pray.*

MARION STRABEL.
